'The way back to God is the way of worship ...Some people think that Christian morality is no more than a series of 'don'ts ... others a series of 'dos'. These things are included'. [Fr Gerald Vann July Magnificat p 262] How is my worship doing?

Fr Slawomir S M A writes to say how pleasant his visit was last weekend. Thanks to all who helped to make it so agreeable and enjoyable for him. He seems to have mastered the new TV as well – World Cup fever in Hassop! The mission appeal realised £331.76 and, again, thanks to all who responded to the moment of supporting the S M A Fathers' missionary work through our parish community.

July Diary: Morning Mass is celebrated very regularly in either Hassop or Bakewell. Please consult the parish newsletter. Due to the poor attendance these days, there will no longer be the same number of Communion Services.

23rd Some preliminary work on the parish archives

25th Ecumenical Service for the St Lazarus Society

26-27th A retiring collection for the Day for Life

28th Visit to the Diocesan Archives office in Nottingham

As we look towards August ...

2nd The Vigil Mass at 6.15pm Hassop with Sunday Mass in Bakewell at normal time of 10.00am.

4th Remembering the outbreak of World War I

6-7th Bakewell Show – please remember this!

9th Nuptial Mass in Hassop

Archbishop Peter Smith writes to every parish in England on the subject of the Day for Life. As you will recall, last Friday the House of Lords debated the Bill on Assisted Dying. Lord Khalid Hameed of Hampstead was present for the debate and made a most impressive intervention with excellent analysis and comment. Our retiring collection next Sunday is a local contribution to the work of respecting human life at every stage of its existence without prolonging it in extreme circumstances.

In Touch parish magazine is available in both churches. There was a moment when we thought there may not be a summer edition and, then, suddenly things happened and it began to take shape! Thank you, Anne, for tackling it once more for the parish community and for giving us the photos in colour – definitely better! You are asked to pay 60p per copy to help towards expenses.

100 Club: This month's winners are E. Charge, J. Lovett, K. Benson. Thanks to all who support this Club.

This Saturday (July 19th), Chris and Michael Allsop will be taking part in the MB Advertising Congathon in aid of the Weston Park Cancer Hospital. Last year they raised the fantastic sum of £11,650. Mick & Chris are our "heroes" and you can sponsor them on their Congathon through various channels. Please ask for details from Christine & Michael or look for sponsor forms. Sponsorship Forms are at the back of both churches for your support.

Extracts from an email sent to Prof Edward Hulmes by a former student of his, Archbishop Habib, of South Iraq:

'I am in Basra south of Iraq. The situation for Christians is very bad especially in Mosul (north) where the Diocese and all churches have been evacuated and all Christians fled to the north. The Archbishop, priests, nuns and monks fled also. There are two kidnapped nuns plus a girl and a boy. The Chaldean Diocese in Mosul become the centre of ISIS (the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria). In Basra a car was bombed near my Diocese before three days (100m) where two were killed and six injured. One of them is Chaldeans others Muslims. Now there are 16000 Christians in Turkey seeking refuge. Lebanon and Jordan have closed their borders. Our Patriarch is in Belgium trying to do something. We, the Chaldean bishops come together in Erbil before two weeks for four days to discuss that. Please find attached our photos and the photo of the kidnapped nuns. I am also attaching some documents issued by our Chaldean Conference. I am sorry to bring bad news, but this is the reality. Please pray for us.'

The Roman Pilgrims had a lovely time! Judy had a prime moment on TV Vaticana at last Sunday's audience in St Peter's at which there was a beautiful atmosphere. Pope Francis invited the people in the square to be silent for a few moments of prayer and they certainly responded. You could have heard a pin drop. If the pilgrims had a Euro for every step they climbed, they would have returned with enough money to go back for another trip! To get to the CSSp house at Clivo di Cinna we had to climb 200 steps each with a rather uneven surface. Very pleasant it all was.

Sick and Housebound: Audrey Brooks, Jenny Lovett, Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, David Hurd, Peggy Johnson and Eileen Simpson. We also remember in prayer the sick of our families and friends not mentioned by name

Recently deceased: Rose Bonner (Fr Tony Kenny's sister and regular visitor to Hassop) and Steven Allanson who died on Wednesday morning (friend of Fr Hugh).

Anniversaries: We pray this week especially John Pickard and Ida Thorpe. May their souls rest in peace.

Last Sunday's collection: Total £183.91. Gift Aid Envelopes are available in both churches.
