'In Hebrew the Thanksgiving Sacrifice is called a Todah Sacrifice ... what Jesus celebrates at the Last Supper is a Passover meal: this has all the characteristics of a Todah Sacrifice. At the last supper, Jesus tells his disciples to do this in memory of him. The Mass has its origins in this thanksgiving sacrifice.' [Fr John Hemer MHM in Mission Today (Summer) p.26]

This Sunday we'll have a voluntary collection to be sent to CAFOD for help in the Middle East countries where Arab Christians and Yazidis have lived side by side with Moslems for centuries and are now being persecuted by the I.S. Some parishioners have asked that we should show our solidarity with the emergency relief appeal hence this opportunity to show this over this weekend.

Fr Matthew Kwaghtaver CSSp from Nigeria, is visiting Hassop & Bakewell for the very first time in his life! We welcome him to the parish community.

The time is coming ... for Roger & Judy to bid us farewell. They will soon move to be nearer their daughter's family. We shall miss them very much in our parish family; especially for all the support and all the ministry tasks that they have performed in our liturgies and social events. Thank you, Roger & Judy, for all this ... and do come back to see us!

Dowry of Mary Pilgrimage in Walsingham takes place on 7th September with Bishop Alan Hopes presiding. Bishop Hopes is the recently appointed Bishop of the Diocese of East Anglia.

The Parish Social Committee met last Sunday after Mass to consider the question of the Christmas Fair. Your views are important and, of course, there will be information later on but at present we are thinking of a change here. The average age of the committee members is 71.25 years and, frankly speaking, we all found it very hard last December doing the Christmas Fair – preparing stuff, carrying it to Bakewell, bringing it back to Hassop, setting-up & taking down again. Quite a job! Our plan for this year is to have an event in the parish rooms. If you have any personal views on this topic, please let Peter & Sharon or other committee members know your views.

S P U C (Society for the Protection of Unborn Children) is holding its National Conference 5-7th September 2014 at the Hayes Conference Centre in Swanick, Derbs. Bishop Philip Egan of Portsmouth will be the guest speaker. John Smeaton, its Chief Executive, hopes that every parish will send a representative. Anybody ready to attend for us?

Carsington Water Walk for Derby Hospitals Charity takes place on Sunday 12th October – looking for supporters!

HOME MISSION SUNDAY, 21st SEPTEMBER 2014 – Supporting outreach to non-practising Catholics: On 21st September 2014, the Bishops of England and Wales ask that Home Mission Sunday is celebrated in every parish and remembered in the Bidding Prayers.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Audrey Brooks, Jenny Lovett, Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, David Hurd, Peggy Johnson and Eileen Simpson along with the sick of our families, friends and those on admission to hospital for treatment.
