Diary of the month:

18th 7-9pm a gathering of young people (14-18 years) at St Anne's Buxton. We're working hard on trying to have our reps c/o John present for the evening. A little miracle!

22nd Faith & Families – a diocesan conference led by Bishop John Sherrington. Details are on notice boards. The Diocese is hoping that every parish will be represented at this day of helping to support our families. Anybody going to represent us? Programme information on boards.

23rd Next weekend Christ the King – End of Liturgical Year

25th Parish Finance Committee meets 7pm in presbytery

27th Belper pre-Confirmation group (Fr Hugh)

29-30th Parish Christmas Fair – now in Hassop. Preparations begin on Friday afternoon 28th November at 2.00pm in parish rooms. YOU might be asked to help us. Please await the 999 call from Peter & Sharon. Because we will have fewer stalls, space will be at a premium but, having no bric-à-brac and books, will help this new plan.

30th Last Sunday – Mass for our young people as usual

Many, many thanks to all who have already given much as we continue to prepare for the Fair. Some of you have already apologised for being absent but have given a donation and helped with the raffle prizes – thank you for that as well. And that famous turkey Fr Hugh has been going on about seems to be making its way towards Hassop! Ye who are sceptics, please note!

Still needed – all the items mentioned as the Social Committee gave you plastic bags over the previous 2 weekends. The hamper still needs a few very 'Christmassy' goodies but it is taking shape – thanks to the contributors!

A special request for jewellery items from Christine & Mary Franklin. The present stock is a bit "tired" and needs a little on ne sait pas quoi- something to jazz it up and make it fresh! You are requested to hunt out any non-precious items (and maybe a bit precious as well!) and give them to Christine or Mary. Thank you! Our usual jewellery 'experts' cannot be with us on the day but we are grateful for their advice and suggestions.

Saturday 13th December our Advent Penitential Service with Frs David & Slawomir coming to help us to celebrate this Sacrament of Mercy in our community. Both priests have visited the parish before and, hopefully, we will have a good turn-out for this Advent act of repentance – you don't need this? Please tell us about it and tell us why you don't need it: it could be good reading for the bulletin!

Fr Joe Keogh (Ripley) has been thinking of us! Fr Joe organises the St Paul Sunday Missal which is for one year only. The missals are on sale and cost £5.00 as last year. If you already have this missal, you might be able to work out the readings etc. without referring to the dates (and if you connect with the bulletin!). On the 1st Sunday of Advent we begin the Readings of Year B.

Cards and 2015 diaries on sale- all-purpose cards with no text inside. Bill McDermott took the photographs – thanks, Bill! They are in pkts of 5 and cost £4.50. Please keep the cards as prepared. Diaries 50p at least suggested Loose plate collections- the parish has received through our Gift Aid claim for these £1,902.69. Grateful thanks to the team that looks after our Gift Aid corner.

100 Club winners last Sunday were: I Village, B Goddard and M Fountain. Unfortunately, a number of people have not yet renewed their membership and this causes unnecessary confusion in keeping things together. Thanks to those who have renewed including the 3 who have done so in this past week. The door to membership is still open and we need new members.

Morning Mass is celebrated according to arrangements announced in the bulletin: it is rarely cancelled. Attendance is not good in general with usually 2 or 3 people. Occasionally we have a huge congregation of 7 or 8. With Advent now approaching, surely some of us could try to make a special effort for this season of prayer, preparation and waiting? To help, have a look at the liturgies offered to us for the Advent season.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Audrey Brooks, Jenny Lovett, Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, B J Dillon, Shirley Plant, David Hurd, Peggy Johnson and Eileen Simpson along with all the sick of the parish.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Donal Storres-Fox, Jack and Peggy Lowes, Peter Gould, Julian Chambers and Hugo McGhee.

May their souls rest in peace.

Last Sunday's collection: Envelopes £126.00 Loose Plate Hassop £47.09 Bakewell £55.70 Total £228.79 In the month of October parishioners + friends supported the parish with £1,540.00 through their personal arrangements. Thank you again for supporting the parish – even when away! Gift Aid envelopes available.
