For this second edition of my message, I would like to repeat my thanks to all who offered me their kind thoughts & prayers, Christmas cards & gifts of many different "persuasions" & labels and, also, for your generous Christmas offerings! It's always nice to be in a parish community at such times and to feel close to many people in the community even if some things haven't worked out the way we would like.

However, I would like to offer a huge 'thank you' to all who helped in our liturgical preparations and celebrations – our church workers in both places, the choir, the various ministries that were willingly done and so helpful, the Children's Christmas Eve Mass and for the 'back-up' that I need. Thank you all for your support and kindness.

My thanks then for making Christmas a happy time and for the kindness you have shown to me at this special time of the year. I wish you and your families a very Blessed New Year, Fr Hugh

P.S. This message is the second edition because we had so few as weekend Masses last weekend – due to the weather, I hope! – 8 people for the Saturday p.m. Mass and 35 for the Sunday morning Mass

Diary of the month:

7th Funeral Mass for Deacon Les Lemon in Clay Cross at 11.30am

14th Funeral Mass for Rosemary Hampson at 11.00am in All Saints Hassop (to be confirmed)

16th Funeral Mass for Fr Vincent at 11.00am in Bickley chapel

27th Social Committee meeting at 12.00 noon in presbytery

28th Liturgy Committee meets at 5.00pm to prepare 2015 and to give some comments on our liturgical 'efforts' in 2014

25th Parish 2nd collection for the Sick & Retired (Diocesan) Priests Fund

30th St Mary's School Chesterfield celebrates 150th anniversary with evening Mass at 7.00pm

This weekend there will be a retiring collection to help the work of Pax Christi. On New Year's Day we had 12 people at Mass in Bakewell and the retiring collection there realised £15.40p. Please look up the message for New Year's Day from Pope Francis: on 1st January every year successive Popes have reminded us of the need to work for peace.

Rosemary Hampson a well-known parishioner died in the early hours of last Wednesday morning. John, her husband, was with her. Rosemary served the parish community by being a member of the Social Committee along with John for a number of years but, in recent times, she has suffered very poor health. To John and to their family, we offer our heartfelt sympathy and prayers. Rosemary's Funeral Mass will be our time to join the family in that prayer of hope.

Our Sunday morning parking causes some embarrassment on occasion. We try to help to facilitate Sunday morning parking by putting 'no parking cones' on the access drives of our neighbours and at the dangerous road junction. This is done by parishioners who arrive early in order to put the cones in place and it is intended to help you with your parking. It is, therefore, quite unacceptable to move any of those cones already put in place before Mass begins. Please respect what others have done to help the parish community. As many of you know already, Hassop Hall has kindly agreed for us to use their car park up to 11.30am on Sunday mornings. Also, Henry Stephenson kindly allows us to use the Stables for our parking but we have to respect that the parish does not own these facilities and that we have non-parishioner neighbours. Thank you again for your cooperation.

Gift Aid News and a Donation: you will be pleased to know that the parish has recently been informed about our latest Gift Aid returns for the 1st & 2nd quarters 2014-2015 which is £3,615.83p – thank you again for using this channel of financial support for the parish and our thanks to the organisers. Also, a parishioner gave a donation of £125.00 from a "successful" participation in parish raffles! Again, our grateful thanks for such generous support.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Audrey Brooks, Jenny Lovett, Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, B J Dillon, Shirley Plant, David Hurd, Peggy Johnson and Eileen Simpson along with all the sick of the parish.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Fr Vincent Griffin, Rosemary Hampson and Deacon Les Lemon.

May their souls rest in peace.
