Next weekend is the Summer Fair ...This is the last weekend before the summer fair and last weekend four bottles were donated for the bottle tombola, which needs a minimum of 100. The weekend before two people gave 20 bottles between them which means that only four or five people have donated so far. Is no one else willing to support your own church? Donations of good bric a brac, jewellery, nearly new clothes, toys, donations and preserves are also amazingly conspicuous by their absence. At Hassop, at least, there has not been a single donation for the hamper raffle. Please email Virginia Hope: paulhope560@btinternet.com to let her know how many cakes you will be making for the Fair. Please bring back your main and hamper raffle ticket stubs with money or take some more this weekend to buy/sell. At this stage it looks as though the summer fair will be a complete and utter disaster because of the lack of support. Please do not leave everything up to the committee and four or five others.

Diary of the Month

Tuesday 23rd June We'll be having an information evening at 7.00pm in the church and presbytery. Refreshments will be available after the presentation. It will end by 9.00pm and it is open to all who would like to come along. Flyers are available and invite your friends to come with you!

25th Deanery at 11.00am and at 7.00pm PPC meeting

28th Weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of Ss Peter & Paul – it is transferred from Monday 29th June. As is usual, we shall be having a 2nd diocesan collection for Peter's Pence and our offerings are sent to Bishop's House.

Our Parish Liturgy Group recently looked at parish Ministries. In June new servers are being trained: our thanks to the senior servers who are helping with this. In September we will be looking for more of you to help in ministry service. We are extremely grateful to all who give their time as Eucharistic Ministers, Readers, Welcomers, musicians, collection counters and coffee servers as well as those behind the scenes like those looking after the Sacristies, the church cleaning and writing the bidding prayers. Some of you may already be involved in more than one or two of these activities and may wish to have a change or may no longer be able to commit to it, if so, do please let the coordinator of that particular rota or Fr Hugh know. If you are unable to fulfil a day that you are on the rota for, please arrange a swap or let the organiser of that rota know rather than just not turning up. If you would like to join one of these ministries do please discuss it with the coordinators or Fr Hugh, as all the rotas need more parishioners to be involved. Readers, Eucharistic Ministers and altar servers are essential to the celebration of the Mass and renewal and training add to the commitment of those involved.
