Last Sunday- Padley Sunday- our new Bishop, Mgr Patrick McKinney, along with Bishop Ralph of Hallam were the main celebrants at the afternoon Mass. Not so many concelebrants or deacons were there and, sadly, not so many pilgrims either. Bishop Patrick sent a message to the people of Nottingham Diocese from Lourdes saying that he will offer Mass for us all at the Grotto of prayer.

Last Wednesday morning four of us from the S V P went to St Vincent's Centre in Sheffield. We had a good 2 hours there and we learnt a lot about the Centre and all it tries to do to help people in difficult circumstances. Ralph Dickens was very helpful and he reminded us that he came to Hassop for Dennis Mason's funeral last September

This weekend Mick & Chris Allsop do their 3-legged walk in aid of Weston Park Hospital for cancer research. Flyers are available and there is a sponsorship form that people can fill in if they want to give support for this very worthwhile cause.

Diary of the Month

21st At St Anne's Buxton, the young people of the Peak District will gather with Peter Vickers who is the Diocesan Youth Coordinator. Anybody able to go for us? Peter is also organising the Diocesan group for next year's World Youth Day to be held in Krakow, Poland. Hopefully, we'll have at least 2 young parishioners attending it!

22nd the Diocesan Vocations Director, Fr Matthew Jakes, along with a number of seminarians will be visiting Hassop church. Tom & Monica have kindly agreed to help them for their Holy Hour and hospitality.

On Sunday evening (19-25th) the CSSp Provincial Chapter meets for the election of a new administration.

23rd A farewell lunch for Rev. David Briggs, the Methodist minister, as he and Hilary prepare to retire.

From the Diocese- The Directors of the Nottingham Roman Catholic Diocesan Education Service (NRCDES) are seeking to appoint a new Director of Education. Further details are available from either Julie Sweeney, julie.sweeney@nottingham-des.org.uk or from the Diocesan Education Service website, www.nottingham-des.org.uk Closing date 10th September 2015.

No last Sunday "special" Mass for our young people in July and August but weekend Masses as usual.

Bishop John Sherrington writes on behalf of the Bishops' Conference to remind us of the Day for Life which will be remembered next Sunday as a national event in our Dioceses and local parish communities. Bishop John reminds us again of the 11th September vote by MPs. He also reminds us of the Church's position on life & death issues. You can get up-to-date information on the Bishops' website catholicnews.org.uk/assisted-dying-bill-2015.

Rob Marris MP has already introduced the Assisted Dying Bill in the House of Commons. The crucial 2nd Reading will be on 11th September. This is our last chance to write to our MPs to express our concerns about it because the Commons closes down for the summer recess on 21st July. The Catholic Herald recently had an article informing readers of the well-known "celebrities" of stage and screen who are active in promoting this Bill. (12/6/15 p 16)

John & Gemma Walsh have started a 'Special Care' service for parents who have suffered the death or still-birth of a small child. Contact no. 0800 612 7962 and further information through Fr Hugh if required.

The Bishop's Certificate in Catechesis will offer foundation courses in Catechesis. Julia Palmer is organising it and she can be contacted at formation@nrcdt.org.uk or on 0115 953 9814. The 'negative' is that the course takes place in New Mills - a bit far maybe - but, then, we do travel very extensively for other things - don't we???? Expenses can be claimed through the parish.

This weekend we have complimentary copies of The Universe (8 copies only) so The Universe is free! The Catholic Herald has an interesting article on the 2 archbishops and 4 priests (at least) who are still missing in Syria. No community escapes unscathed in wars.

100 Club winners last Sunday were C Franklin, R Parsons and P Marsh - all millionaires now! Thank you for supporting the Club and bringing us together for a laugh.

Sick and Housebound: Mgr Edward Walker, Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, Agnes Wilson, Mary McNulty and Eileen Simpson along with all our sick family & parish members.

Anniversaries: - We pray this week especially for John Pickard and Ida Thorpe. May their souls rest in peace.
