'In 2013 the Royal College of General Practitioners (RCGP) consulted its members throughout the UK on assisted dying. 77% said the RCGP should oppose a change in the law: 18% favoured the RCGP moving to a neutral position and only 5% wanted to change the law.' Next Wednesday evening we are going ahead with arrangements for a Summer BBQ for our younger parishioners – those moving to new schools, those recovering from exam pressures, those preparing for Confirmation later this month and for anybody else who would like to come along! Eilsis along with Paula are the chief organisers – thanks for doing this without any pressure! Obviously, if you are coming along, please prepare a dish for the occasion. You can contact Eilis on 01629 650 453 so that things can be co-ordinated. The notice is short so apologies for this ... but we have to move when the 'spirit' says 'go for it!!'

The new Methodist Minister, Rev. Adrian Perry, will be officially inducted to serve his community this Tuesday evening at 7.30pm. Visitors are welcome.

Terry I'ons is going to help the parish as our Justice-Peace-Integrity (of)-Creation representative without going overboard about it! There are lots of meetings and documents about JPIC but Terry will simply be a conduit for giving us some information about what's happening in the Church and elsewhere. Terry has sent this little snippet from recent information sources. Pope Francis has announced, that he will commemorate the First World Day of Prayer for Creation at a Liturgy of the Word in Rome on September 1st. The Pope says, "In a communion of prayer with our Orthodox brothers and with all persons of good will, we want to offer our contribution to overcoming the ecological crisis that humanity is experiencing."

Bakewell Town Hall will hold a celebratory dinner on 18th September in the Assembly Room – tickets only £30.00!

Some of us have written to Patrick McLoughlin, our local M P re the Assisted Dying Bill, to be voted on in the House of Commons on September 11th: don't be afraid to continue to engage him and the 'experts' tell us that a short letter is better than emails. You could even express "surprise" at the way the new Peers have been elevated to the House of Lords. It doesn't look very nice to ordinary people.

Sick and Housebound: Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, Agnes Wilson, Mary McNulty and Eileen Simpson along with all our sick family & parish members. Agnes Wilson continues to be very ill and her family remain with her. Nigel (Mickey's husband) remains very much in our parish prayers as he, too, is very ill.

Anniversaries: – We pray especially this week for Evelyn Day and Cesar Guerrini. Also, last Wednesday, Gill Dillon died unexpectedly. Gill and Bernard have been regular visitors to the parish when staying in Taddington and have always actively supported our parish social events for the past 15 years or so. Gill's funeral takes place on 7th September in St Philip's Mansfield. We think of Gill and Bernard and their family in our prayers this weekend.

May their souls rest in peace
