We host a United Service for the Week of Prayer for World Peace on Sunday, 11th October at 6pm. in English Martyrs, Bakewell following the themes for the Week of Prayer. You are all warmly invited to join in this evening of prayer which will be led by members of each church and to stay for refreshments afterwards. You are also invited to bring a plate of food for a shared table after the Service.

Confirmation: very many thanks to all who came to the Confirmation to support the candidates and also those who generously provided the refreshments after the Mass.

CAFOD: Friday was Harvest Fast Day, please bring your envelope next week if you forgot it today.

100 Club renewals are due for the September members- this is most of us. Mick Allsop has prepared a reminder notice for you. Please renew now, make your cheques out to Hassop & Bakewell RCP otherwise Mick has trouble with the bank. Please look today!

Barry Gooch died peacefully on Sunday evening with his family beside him; we send our sympathy and prayers to Rick, his mother and sister.

2016 Parish Diaries—available: a minimum of 50p donation is suggested.

Commonwealth War Grave: you may not be aware that we have a Commonwealth War grave in our cemetery; Brian Cain gives us the following details:

Lieutenant Samuel Charles Lindsey Hodgkinson

1886 – 1915

Born in Baslow and a member of All Saints Parish, Lieutenant Hodgkinson, served in the Royal Australian Navy on the flagship HMAS Australia. In January 1915, he was wounded whilst on exercises off Scotland and later died of his injuries. He is buried in the family grave marked by the white cross at the left hand edge of this cemetery.

His cousin, Captain John Francis Hodgkinson, died in Flanders in 1914, and has a memorial in All Saints Church.
