Benedict Tshimangadzo, a South African Catholic, was beatified recently. Benedict, a married man with a family, was brutally murdered in his home on 2nd February 1990 as he was praying. Six hundred people attended his funeral Mass believing he was killed because of his faith. [L'Osservatore Romano 18 Sept. 2015 p.5]

CAFOD collection will be counted this weekend: there are still some Gift Aid envelopes available in both churches.

Diary of the Month

11th We host an evening service in Bakewell church at 6.00pm c/o Juliet Peel. (Please see box)

12th Historic Churches representative visits the parish

13th Safeguarding meeting in Matlock

14th Marriage preparation

15th Deanery meeting at Hassop after Mass

17th PROCLAIM'15 – a parish and diocesan outreach initiative. We are still looking for 2 representatives.

17th–18th Weekend Masses will remember World Mission Sunday. Mission Sunday is observed throughout the whole Church as we reflect on the how and where and when of our own mission outreach and commitment. There will be a 2nd collection for Mission Sunday shortly after Holy Communion. Gift Aid envelopes available in both churches for those who would like to make use of them.

18th Parish AGM after Sunday Mass – open to all who would like to attend and we will be looking for some new representatives to share the responsibility of parish life.

This evening we host a United Service for the Week of Prayer for World Peace at 6pm. in English Martyrs, Bakewell following the themes for the Week of Prayer. You are all warmly invited to join in this evening of prayer which will be led by members of each church and to stay for refreshments afterwards. You are also invited to bring a plate of food for a shared table after the Service.

From Bishop Patrick: "Thank you for welcoming me to Hassop and for preparing what was a very joyful and prayerful Mass of Confirmation... My thanks to those who sent cards afterwards to thank me for my visit and for the Sacrament of Confirmation. My thanks also for all the parishioners who work with you in your parish ministry..."

Banns of Marriage: Lucy Elliot and Daniel Melia are preparing to marry. Lucy has received her Baptism and Confirmation in our parish and we wish them well as they prepare for their special day. If anybody knows of any reason why this marriage should not be celebrated, please refer to Fr Hugh.

Our S V P Parish Conference met last Wednesday after morning Mass. It was the first meeting since the funeral of Nigel and Mickey is our Conference President. Our words of sympathy and prayer were again expressed to Mickey and the family. Usually, we have a retiring collection for the SVP around the feast of St Vincent de Paul but we were not able to plan for this in September. At our meeting we agreed to have this retiring collection the weekend of 31st Oct.-1st November

Prisoners' Sunday which is observed this weekend (11th October) gives us an opportunity to remember that the Church's ministry is a universal ministry. Cardinal Vincent Nichols writes, "As President of the Prison Advice & Care Trust, I invite you to join with me in supporting Prisoners' Sunday..." If you would like to help this particular ministry of the Church financially, please ask Fr Hugh for details. Information flyers are available for you to take home.

Dorothy Jewitt says 'thank you' to all who joined her at the Sunday Mass 2 weeks as she celebrated a "significant birthday", let us say! Well done, Dorothy, and thank you for your work on the Social Committee. Also, Teresa Pathe says "hello" to old friends and acquaintances as she very diligently renews her 100 Club membership. And Teresa is doing this all the way from Leeds ... a hint?

Fr Allan Collins CSSp died last Monday afternoon. Allan and I first met in September 1963 when we travelled to Ireland for our novitiate and he was ordained a week after myself in his home parish. Allan's health had been quite unstable in recent years but we expected him to "bounce back" after his usual treatment. Sadly, this time he did not return to the Chester community from hospital. The Requiem Mass will be celebrated next Wednesday, 14th October, at noon and the Liturgy will be celebrated in St Columba's Church, Newhall Rd CH2 1SA. Anybody who would like to attend will be most welcome. Fr Hugh Sick and Housebound: Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, Mary McNulty, Eileen Simpson, Michael & Mary, Peter Nelson and a parishioner taken to hospital.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for John Skidmore & Denis Wilson. May their souls rest in peace.

Last Sunday's collection: Envelopes £199.40 Loose Plate Bakewell £51.52 Hassop £68.09 Total £324.01
