Mary Pickard, a well-known parishioner, passed away in CALO hospital last Friday afternoon. Many of us knew Mary very well and we were also aware of her poor health condition. She was very brave and struggled to attend the Friday morning 11.30am Mass coming as recently as two weeks ago. She was also a great friend of the parish and always did her "little bit" to help in the routine activities of parish life. Her funeral takes place next Thursday morning and, as is usual in a parish community, it would be good to have as many parishioners as possible present. To her daughter Sarah and Adam (her husband) and to Mary's grandchildren, we offer our prayerful sympathy. May she rest in peace!

Diary of the Month

This weekend is Mission Sunday: it is celebrated throughout the whole world. On Saturday (17th Oct.) our Diocese hosted Proclaim'15 and Bishop Patrick encouraged us to participate in this gathering. Perhaps one or two attended and, if they did, thank you for going. Please let us know what happened at the gathering. Mission Sunday invites us all to be missionary minded and missionary hearted as we reflect on the how and where and when of our own mission and commitment. We have a 2nd collection for Mission Sunday shortly after Holy Communion. Gift Aid envelopes available in both churches for those who would like to make use of them. The special collection is sent directly to the MISSIO office in London.

On Sunday morning (18th) after 10.00am Mass the parish A G M takes place in the parish rooms. The AGM provides us with an opportunity to think together about the quality of our parish life (or lack of it!). We hope to have the meeting coming to a close at about noon – there will be the usual brief reports from our various groups.

24th October – Baptism Preparation

25th October – Last Sunday of the month Young people's Mass in Hassop

Our clocks go back one hour next weekend!

Banns of Marriage: 2nd time for Lucy Elliot and Daniel Melia who are preparing to marry. Lucy has received her Baptism and Confirmation in our parish and we wish them well as they prepare for their special day. If anybody knows of any reason why this marriage should not be celebrated, please refer to Fr Hugh.

Grateful thanks to all who prepared and joined us last Sunday evening for our ecumenical service in Bakewell. It was a beautiful service and well supported by the other church communities plus their clergy. The heating worked well ... the hot water worked well ...the refreshments were excellent ... but we forgot the collection!

Parish 100 Club winners last week were E Simpson, A Keohane and K Bradley. Many thanks to all who have jumped into action and renewed their membership. We still have loads of room for new members especially parishioners because the club at present depends on many family and personal friends of parishioners.

World Youth Day is very much on our radar screens now. At the Deanery meeting in Hassop last Thursday, the parish clergy were asked to support the efforts being made by The Briars Centre to "recruit" young adults to go to Krakow for WYD 2016. Pilgrims have to be 18 years or over by next July. If you've been before, you are not disqualified from going again! Ask Fr Hugh about it.

The Catenians are arranging to have their annual Mass for deceased members on 2nd November. We also had this Mass last year and it was followed by a meal in Great Longstone. The final details will be in the bulletin next weekend but the Catenian organisers are hoping that some parishioners might be "persuaded" to join them for both the Mass and the meal! Full details next week! Their annual Mass for deceased members reminds us that the month of November is sometimes referred to as the Month of the Holy Souls. There will be an opportunity for you to remember your family members and friends as we journey through this month of Remembrance and Prayer.

CAFOD Harvest Collection realised £362.90 with a handful of parishioners using the CAFOD gift aid envelopes.

As we look towards November – Feast of All Saints will be celebrated on the first day and the first Sunday of the month which coincide. Therefore, the Vigil Mass will be on 31st October in Hassop with Sunday Mass in Bakewell.

Sick and Housebound: Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, Mary McNulty, Eileen Simpson, Michael & Mary and Peter Nelson.

Anniversaries: – We remember Mary Pickard and Fr Allan Collins CSSp who recently passed through the mystery of death to enter God's eternal presence and peace.

Last Sunday's collection: Envelopes £165.40 Loose Plate Hassop £65.59 Bakewell £18.90 Total £249.89
Gift Aid Envelopes are available in both churches for use by parishioners and visitors. Please use!
