This weekend we have a retiring collection to help with our Easter flower arrangements. We are very grateful to that small band of flower arrangers who quietly work behind the scenes in both churches to serve the parish community. They give far more than they ever ask for and do indeed deserve our thanks for their service to us. Thank you very much! Thanks, also, to those who clean the churches and attend to the altar linen and keep it looking so clean. Cardinal Winning of Glasgow used to say that, if the altar linen was clean, everything else would be fine in the parish. Well our altar linen is definitely clean!

Lent Jars and donations for the Lent charity can be brought back during these latter days of Lent. Tim & Barbara Harding will send these donations to the orphanage in India that they know and have visited over the years. After Lent, the 'red boxes' will be distributed.

Diary of the Month

Holy Week and Easter Triduum Services are given above so, please, take a copy of the newsletter with you. We begin this week with the Blessing of the Palms at both weekend Masses. Booklets are available to help us ... and clocks go forward next Saturday night.

25th (Good Friday) Collection for the Holy Places

28th Easter Monday Mass at 11.30am

31st Wedding preparation

April dates:

10th First Communion preparations

13th SVP meeting after morning service

17th First Communion preparations

21st Deanery and clergy meeting

22nd First Communion preparations

100 Club winners last week were M Watkiss, C Rider and L Brookes: renewal reminders are in both churches! If you collect yours immediately and pay up immediately, it helps enormously and saves postage. We're looking for 20 new members and 'retired' members might consider returning to the fold. The parish gets about £2,000.00 yearly from the Club. Our thanks to Mick & Christine for all they do.

The Church – the parish community – and

Sacraments: Last weekend I mentioned to those present at Mass the Latin phrase 'sentire cum ecclesia' – to feel with the Church. Often we are invited to celebrate the Sacraments of the Church's prayer life. These Sacraments accompany us as we make life's journey, from the beginning of our lives right up to the final moments of our journey. Obviously, the spirit of these Sacramental celebrations is that we receive them regularly and with a spirit of faith as a person living in the world but, also, living in the Church, having almost a double vocation – viz. the Church and the world. Nobody can ever impose the reception of Sacraments on anybody else and no minister of Sacraments can ever impose their reception but it is a sign of our prayer life and Sacramental life as to how we see our encounters with Christ here and now. Please contact me if you would like to arrange for the Sacraments and a home visit. Also, please contact me if you would like a spiritual talk or Reconciliation during Holy Week. Fr Hugh

Clergy Offerings for Easter - envelopes available as usual

The Parish Social Committee has agreed that we defer the 2016 auction that had been planned for later this year. However, we will still have our Summer Fair, towards the end of June (probably 25th) and the Christmas Fair at the end of November. You have already been informed of the Bishop's visit and the barbecue on 3rd & 4th June. Also, an ecumenical music evening is being planned for 8th July. It helps if we try to plan around these social events for the parish community rather than plan to avoid them! In this past year, the Social Committee and 100 Club have raised over £9,000.00 for parish finances. Again, our thanks!

Sick and Housebound: Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, Mary McNulty and Eileen Simpson We also remember those in hospital, those going into hospital and the many not mentioned here

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Mary Storres-Fox and Christine Opie.

May their souls rest in peace.

Last Sunday's collection: Envelopes £201.60 Loose Plate Bakewell: £77.03 Hassop: £77.03 Total £321.25

CAFOD COLLECTION was £393.61

Gift Aid Envelopes are available in both churches for use by parishioners and visitors. Please use!
