The words of the Responsorial Psalm in today's liturgy are taken from Psalm 31, words in which the psalmist cries out to God for forgiveness. In doing so he is asking God to put the past behind and lead him into a new beginning, a new beginning in sinlessness. "Lord," he cries out, "forgive the wrong I have done and I will sing glad songs of freedom."

15th Celebration of First Reconciliation at 6.00pm – open to all who would like to come along.

16th Deanery meeting

19th First Holy Communion Sunday for the young parishioners prepared by the Catechists (It's also the diocesan pilgrimage to Walsingham.)

19th (cont'd) Day for Life with 2nd diocesan collection

23rd Parish Pastoral Council meets at 7.00pm (presbytery)

24th Preparations for the Summer Fair

25th Summer Fair in Hassop

28-29th Feast of Ss Peter & Paul – holy day of obligation for us. Vigil Mass (28th) at 6.15pm in Bakewell and feast day Mass (29th) at 10.00am in Hassop

I would like to thank all who came along to the Mass celebrated by Bishop Patrick and, also, my thanks to all who cleaned and prepared the church and presbytery, displayed the vestments and all those who generously provided the beautiful refreshments. What a pity that only 58 people turned out for the opening Mass of the bicentenary. For those of us who gathered, it was a very pleasant parish evening with the Bishop joining us for refreshments. Some people have suggested to me that we should consider inviting a "V.I.P." for the actual 2018 celebrations. Personally, I am very reluctant to do this because it means much labour for a few very willing souls and I am not convinced that the turn-out would be all that good for such a serious invitation to be made.

Again, my thanks to all who supported the summer BBQ for the Holy Ghost Fathers' needs. To those of you who organised it, gave donations, came along to the evening and, above all, prayed for us, my thanks for all that you did. An amazing sum of over £1000 was raised, when I told my confreres in Chester they were "gob-smacked". Thank you all for your fantastic generosity. Fr Hugh

First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion: this week we remember especially our young parishioners Joe, Ines, Emily, Thomas, Mario, Ben and William and their families as they prepare for these special sacraments.

Our Summer Fair has to be kept in mind! We have greatly reduced the number of social events because they became very labour intensive. We now focus on 3 or 4 events in the year and hope you will be able to respond to these. We still need donations, bric-a-brac, good quality nearly new clothing, bottles galore for the tombola, cakes & preserves, jewellery and much more besides. Please ask Social Committee members about bringing your items to the presbytery.

Hassop church choir is currently in great need of male singers. Practice night is Tuesday at 7.30. A sense of humour and ability to sing in tune is needed. An ability to read music is not essential. A warm welcome is guaranteed.

Sunday Parking at Hassop: An urgent appeal -please park on the left side only of the lane coming down from Gt Longstone, if you park on both sides the transporter lorries from Gt Longstone cannot get through and they come down even on Sundays! Please try to park considerately in the yard, parking as close to the car in front or behind you rather than leaving a space that is too small for a car. Remember we are able to park at Hassop Hall till 11.30am on Sundays. We are most grateful for that.

Ecumenical Concert: 8th July at 7pm in Hassop church with the joint choirs from our church, Bakewell Parish Church and Bakewell Methodists.

Sick and Housebound: Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, Mary McNulty and Eileen Simpson. We also remember those in hospital, those going into hospital and the many not mentioned here.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Fr Peter Devins CSSp, James Johnston and William Watkins.

May their souls rest in peace.
