'Individualism is like an axis in today's culture. This individualism has many names, names rooted in selfishness ...always searching for oneself, not looking towards others, not looking towards family. Individualism also seeks pleasure. I would say a word that is a bit harsh but I say it between quotation marks: it is a "cursed wellbeing" that has done us much harm.' [Pope Francis to priests and catechists at a recent meeting in Rome]

This weekend we have a 2nd diocesan collection for Peter's Pence following on last Wednesday's Holy Day of Obligation. The attendance in Hassop on Wed. morning for the feast was very bad although a few visitors joined us.

Diary of the month:

3rd July: (This Sunday morning) A special ABC Carnival Service 11am on Bakewell Recreation Ground to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Association of Bakewell Christians, all welcome and we should try to support the event. We can go down after 10.00am Mass in Bakewell.

8th July at 7pm (next Friday) in Hassop church, an Ecumenical music evening with the joint choirs from our parish, Bakewell Parish Church and Bakewell Methodist Church, along with visitors. Tell your friends and neighbours and bring them along. Refreshments provided after the music in the parish rooms. The choirs have been preparing for this event for some weeks now so, please, do come along. Many thanks to Christine and our own choir!

10th July: Bishop Patrick will lead the Padley pilgrimage this year - this is our local pilgrimage. We assemble at 3.00pm at Grindleford Station and celebrate Mass.

12th July we have about 55 visitors coming to visit the parish. The visit is being arranged by the St Vincent de Paul Society members of another parish who are bringing their parishioners for a day out to Bakewell and Hassop. Our parish SVP members will host the visit and Mass on this day will be in Hassop at 11.30am.

13th S V P meeting after morning Mass – open to all.

14th Funeral service for John Kelly late of Calver 11.30am

16-17th Mission Appeal on behalf of the Volunteer Missionary Movement – a lay missionary movement.

26-28th C S Sp provincial assembly

Sea Sunday is celebrated next Sunday: we have a retiring collection for the Apostleship of the Sea. Some parishioners may know about the apostolate of the A of S to seafarers who come to these islands because of their work. The Church is present to serve them through their chaplains and welcomers. It is an international apostolate.

Our Parish Choir meets on Tuesday evenings: they are a very loyal group of parishioners and give fully 100% - thank you so much, Choir Members. Sadly, a few members have recently had to cease membership and we are now seriously looking for new members. In September we are going to have an 'open evening' to recruit new members. You don't have to be a "super" star but, if you are one, well you would be most welcome indeed! Think about it – even pray about it – and, then, join us at the meeting.

Last Saturday and Sunday we again held our Summer Fair. Many, many thanks to all who supported it and, through it, you support the parish. Grateful thanks to the Social Committee who put it all together in spite of some stress + a panic appeal on the Tuesday evening. Equal thanks to all parishioners, friends and neighbours who responded to the invitation to make it "our" Summer Fair. You can see the details of the Fair's proceeds on the noticeboards. The net result for the parish was £2,526.32 – thank you- thank you- thank you again to all who in any way did their "little bit" to make it so successful. Agnes, our youngest helper, did sterling work with the help of her parents on their table.

Liturgical gestures are considered to be very important. Our responses, the Sign of Peace, the reception of Holy Communion (on the hand or in the mouth), the Offertory collection basket – even if we use our bank for this – are gestures of participation to be observed prayerfully.

1st Communion Photos are available through the following link at rblank@waitrose.com or Carol McDermott

In the month of May Thirty-three parishioners and parish friends contributed £1,549.00 towards parish income through their banking arrangements. Thank you for this.

Sick and Housebound: Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, Mary McNulty and Eileen Simpson. We also remember those in hospital, those going into hospital and the many not mentioned here.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for David Overton, John Kelly and all others known to us.

May their souls rest in peace.
