Diary of the Month

13th Remembrance Sunday – evening celebration at Crich
16th SVP meeting after morning Mass
17th Deanery meeting at Ripley (please note Mass time)
19th Reception into full Communion
20th Feast of Christ the King – Closing of the Year of Mercy and Jubilee Intentions for our young people.
26th Parish Christmas Fair and the Commissioning of our 2 new Eucharistic Ministers, Julie Hespe and Juliet Peel.
27th Advent begins with Year A + last Sunday of month Mass for our younger parishioners. Our Advent reconciliation service with parish closing of Year of Mercy will be celebrated at 11.00am on 17th December.

National Youth Sunday is celebrated on 20th November and the diocesan youth centre (Crich) has sent helpful information about Youth Sunday. There is a website for further information at www.nationalyouthsunday.org.uk

From Bishop Patrick: "I would like to invite all young adults to the Closing Mass of the Year of Mercy in St Barnabas Cathedral at 6pm on 20th November. I invite you to gather first for tea in the Cathedral Hall at 4pm. This will give me an opportunity to meet you and spend some time with you. Two young people will be making short presentations about their experience of being in Poland for World Youth Day. I would welcome the chance to listen to what you would like to see happen for young adults in our diocese and to share with you some forthcoming events. At 5.30pm we will move into the Cathedral to practise the music and prepare for Mass. I look forward to meeting you then"

From last Wednesday's liturgy meeting: A simple Children's Christmas Service will be organised by Claire and Rachel (details TBC as soon as possible). Like last year, we'll have an Advent evening prayer on Tuesdays at 7.00pm – just before the choir practice. It's open to all! The poor attendance at Holy Day of Obligation Masses and daily Mass was pointed out by Fr Hugh. Christmas Masses are:- Children's Mass 5.30pm in Hassop; Carol Service with "Midnight Mass" beginning 9.00pm – with more community carols. Christmas morning Mass in Bakewell at 10.00am. The usual Crib arrangements + decorations are seen to by our faithful helpers – can they do it again this year?

Hassop flowers: Liz Marsh has this in hand: please contact her if you think you can help out. Many thanks.

On 11th March 2017 There will be a national youth gathering in the Wembley Arena London. Nottingham Diocese will be organising the arrangements for the event. It is a one day event so no overnight accommodation needed and, thanks to the generosity of a parishioner's family, we have some funds available to cover expenses. Please contact Fr Hugh if you are interested in going.

This weekend: We are hoping to have as many bottles and other non-perishable items for our Christmas Fair. For more information, please contact the Social Committee members. The Fair is only 2 weeks away now so cakes, raffle tickets, donations, etc., etc. can all be in our plans. Very many thanks to all who have so kindly already brought items along.

Bishop John Sherrington on behalf of all the Bishops has reminded us of the Church's pastoral care for all who are facing end-of-life circumstances. There is a small prayer card in both churches for us to take away and there is a website to consult further www.artofdyingwell.org

Parish 100 Club drawn this Sunday: a new prize structure will be implemented so come along to find out more. We now 94 paid up members and we are looking for 6 more parishioners to come on board. Over to us!

Next Sunday there will be a pilgrimage walk from Crich to Nottingham for the youth gathering with Bishop Patrick. If you're interested in going or encouraging young people to do this, contact Fr David Cain on chaplain@ndcys.com

Sick and Housebound: Patricia Turner, Shirley Plant, Mary McNulty, Frances Walsh, Catherine Brocklehurst and Eileen Simpson. We also remember those going into hospital and the many not mentioned here.

Cliff Mann, known to many parishioners and visited by our parish SVP members, died on Wednesday morning in Burton Closes residence in Bakewell. We think of Cliff and Rita in prayer – they were very loyal parishioners in life.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Dorothy Dale, John Hodgkinson, Donal Storres-Fox, Jack and Peggy Lowes and Peter Gould.

May their souls rest in peace.
