Homeless Sunday

Today is homeless Sunday and so we pray for all those who have no place to lay their heads today.

Father James

I am very happy to have been appointed to your parish to care for you while Father Hugh is away on a well earned sabbatical in Rome. I shall get to know you all in the fullness of time. Meanwhile please feel free to offer any advice and help you may think I shall need and know that I shall appreciate it very much.

Sick Calls

If you know of any Parishioner who is ill and would like a visit from the Priest, please let me know and I shall be only too happy to attend to their spiritual needs. You may of course have to show me the way. Thank you.

James Davoren, Fr Hugh's older brother, passed away unexpectedly last week in Nazareth House Birkenhead. James had been in declining health for several years but his condition worsened over the Christmas period and no amount of antibiotics could clear up the infections he had. His funeral takes place in Christ the King Church, New Chester Rd, CH62 6AT on Friday, 27th January at 1.30pm. If you are planning to attend please liaise with Peter Marsh to enable car sharing. Fr Hugh would like an idea of numbers for catering purposes – let Peter or Juliet know.

Hassop Church Bicentenary: There will be an informal meeting, lasting about an hour, in the presbytery at 7pm on Wednesday, 1st February to brief parishioners on the progress of the Heritage Project. All welcome.

Sick and Housebound: Bernard Charnley, Patricia Turner, Shirley Plant, Mary McNulty and Eileen Simpson. We also remember the many not mentioned here.
