A small group of us are talking about going to the exhibition and car sharing might make sense if more wish to go. The plan is this:- by car to Park & Ride from Hassop at 9.30am on Friday morning. If you are interested, please contact Fr Hugh so that arrangements can be made. Return time unknown! Mass in the Cathedral at 1pm – open to all.

So, action stations, please! Also, to celebrate the end of British Summer Time, we're going to have bacon butties on 29th October – last Sunday of the month. Let's get ready!

Next Sunday morning after 10am Mass in parish rooms we have the AGM which is open to all. Brian Cain as PPC Chairman will open proceedings and, then, we shall have new elections to the PPC. Some people have kindly agreed to serve on this – many thanks! – but the AGM has the right to also nominate members but names should be submitted before the meeting to Brian or Fr Hugh.

AGM Reports: each parish group/event is asked to prepare a five minute presentation on activities, expectations, plans, etc. It helps if you have these written down beforehand. Refreshments will be available as the meeting begins.
