October is the month of the Rosary: after Friday's 11.30 Mass, we shall offer one decade. Have you got a Rosary?

This Sunday morning after 10am Mass in parish rooms we have the AGM which is open to all. Brian Cain as PPC Chairman will open proceedings, then we shall have new elections to the PPC. Some people have kindly agreed to serve on this – many thanks! – but the AGM has the right also to nominate members but names should be submitted before the meeting to Brian or Fr Hugh.

AGM Reports: each parish group/event will give a five minute presentation on activities, expectations, plans, etc. It helps if you have these written down beforehand. Refreshments will be available as the meeting begins.

This Sunday evening in our Bakewell church with the other local church communities at 6.00pm, we have our ecumenical service. It is one of the few occasions that we host a service so please do try to support it. Music and readings will be prepared.

Week of prayer for World Peace – the ABC are having a stand in the Bakewell Co-Op foyer each day this week, each day one denomination is manning the stand from 10am-2pm, our day is Friday. Do stop by and talk to those manning it and if you would like to help please let Fr Hugh or Juliet know.

Parish 'head count' continues this weekend: we had 32 people present for Saturday Mass and 83 on Sunday morning – total 115.

ADOREMUS is the weekend gathering planned for 7-9th September 2018. It will be in the form of a National Eucharistic Congress due to take place in Liverpool. Our parish has been allocated 2 tickets. Anybody willing to go? Perhaps some young people might be encouraged to go? Expenses will be covered by the parish community.

Sunday Morning Refreshments Monica is looking for more volunteers to help with Sunday morning refreshments. Some are no longer able to help out and so a few gaps have occurred. If you can help, please see Monica or contact her on 01629 813258. Many thanks.

Historic vestments are on display over the weekend in the Cathedral. We owe enormous thanks to Joan Cain & Jenny Harkness for putting everything together and to Brian for being "on duty" to help out. No small thing for people to be present for 7 hours over three days- thank you so much. Yvonne, Juliet and Fr Hugh managed to visit on Friday and it really was a wonderful display of our history and heritage.

Thanks to Lise Elliot for her few words concerning our parish Gift Aid scheme. The parish recently received £2,068.00 from HMRC. Lise writes: "As you know our Parish benefits from those who are in a position to 'gift aid' donations. At the moment we are able to claim a further 25p on every £1 donated by UK tax payers - a significant amount. If you would like to ask any further questions please ask either myself or Fr Hugh and join our growing band of 'Gift Aiders and thank you for listening to me last Saturday & Sunday. Lise Elliot".

Christmas Fair hampers and raffle tickets are available in both churches. Please help to make the Fair a success.

From Wednesday's liturgy meeting, Many of you have said how well our young parishioners read at the last Sunday of month Mass. They are also fulfilling the Ministry of Reader so we are very grateful to them for this. We would like to include their names on the bulletin when we do this Mass so, please, do let Sarah Carter know who is available for reading when she sends out the emails.

From Thursday's finance meeting, the annual insurance premium has been paid in October - £2,345.31. We still have £3,760.00 to contribute to the Sick & Retired Priests Fund. Hassop church may need something like £17,000.00 coming from somewhere for roof repairs. So, please don't think we can hibernate as winter draws near!

100 Club winners last Sunday were J & G Heyes, T Clarke, J Peel, R & M Hickie and R Hoare. Thank you all for helping the parish through the 100 Club. Some folks have not yet renewed their membership despite appeals so their names will be withdrawn & others have still to collect their reminders – See Mick Allsop for further information.

Sick and Housebound: Margaret Taberner, Patricia Turner, Shirley Plant, Mary McNulty, Eileen Simpson, Rosaline Varnes and Mary Howlings. We also remember the many parishioners and friends not mentioned here especially those who have recently moved to a care home.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for John Freeman, Sr Angela Bennet (recently deceased) and our parishioners, family members and friends at the weekly Masses for Parishioners.

May their souls rest in peace.
