October is the month of the Rosary: after Friday's 11.30 Mass, we shall offer one decade. Have you got a Rosary?

Diary of the Month

22nd MISSION SUNDAY – universally celebrated – a 2nd collection to be taken up after Holy Communion and sent to MISSIO. Gift Aid envelopes are available. The choir has been preparing the CSSp hymn 'Go ye afar ...' for Mission Sunday. Thank you for doing this.

28th Wedding Service

29th Next Sunday young people's Mass so, please, the usual preparations and thanks to all who help in the preparations. Also, bacon butties and the clocks go back! The Social Committee will be busy preparing things for our bacon butty gathering in parish rooms after Mass. It is meant to be a social occasion so please come and join us.

31st House Mass and Blessing (no Bakewell Mass).

Thank you to all who supported the AGM last Sunday and who gave their short reports so that the parish community can share in the different tasks we undertake in the parish. Brian Cain handed over the PPC chairmanship to Matt Wilson; Bill McDermott is Vice-chairman and Kate Benson the Secretary. The new PPC members are Kate Benson, Roland Blankenstein and Martyn Bedford. The members continuing to serve the parish community are Anthony Howlings, Vicki Dooley, Elizabeth Müller and Brian Cain (for Heritage matters).

ADOREMUS is the weekend gathering planned for 7-9th September 2018. It will be in the form of a National Eucharistic Congress due to take place in Liverpool. Our parish has been allocated 2 tickets. Anybody willing to go? Perhaps some young people might be encouraged to go? Expenses will be covered by the parish community. YOU can get more information about this on the internet.

Last Sunday evening's ecumenical service went very well thanks to our choir's in-put, the parishioners who attended and some visitors from the other Bakewell churches but not so many of these. In fact, on Thursday evening, there was a very important meeting of the Association of Bakewell Christians' AGM. The future of ABC is under review and an extraordinary meeting will take place on 22nd November at 2.00pm in the Friends Meeting House to see what ABC's future might be. This meeting is open to all who are interested in the work of inter-church prayer, fellowship and taking on the challenge of social changes.

Parish Advent recollection morning 16th December 11.00am

Sunday Morning Refreshments Monica is looking for more volunteers to help. If you can help, please see Monica or contact her on 01629 813258. Many thanks.

Hassop parking was again a "hot point" last Sunday morning. Hassop Hall Hotel very kindly allows us to park only in their hotel car park. We are not allowed to park on their drive nor are we allowed to park anywhere else on the hotel's property. So, the ramp, the drive and other convenient corners are just not allowed. Please remember that the hotel is helping us enormously on this question of Sunday morning parking and without this help our situation could be very serious indeed.

This week (27th) marks the 50th anniversary of the Abortion Act. Last week's Catholic Herald had a very personal letter in it from Dr Dermot Kearney concerning a recent decision taken by some members of the Royal College of Obstetricians & Gynaecologists [RCOG]. The letter says in part, 'For several decades doctors have broken the law by abusing the Abortion Act of 1967 ...At present, the majority of abortions performed in the U K are, in fact, criminal acts, flouting the law.' (p 29) Not nice reading.

Wednesday 1st November feast of All Saints – a Holy Day of Obligation in England & Wales. We have Mass at 10am in Hassop and at 6.15pm in Bakewell.

Thursday 2nd November the Church prays for the Faithful Departed throughout the whole world. Hassop Mass at 10am and 6.15pm in Bakewell. It is a day of devotion and prayer and we should do our best to make it this.

Christmas Fair date is Saturday 18th November in Hassop presbytery rooms. Time to start thinking of the hampers to be filled, the raffle tickets to be sold, the goodies to be brought, etc. Peter Marsh is losing sleep already!!

From last Tuesday's Heritage meeting, what would people think about tackling the last "clear" window in Hassop as a 200th anniversary parish project? It would be dedicated to parishioners and friends – no personal names.

Sick and Housebound: Margaret Taberner, Patricia Turner, Shirley Plant, Mary McNulty, Eileen Simpson, Rosaline Varnes and Mary Howlings. We also remember the many parishioners and friends not mentioned here especially those who have recently moved to a care home.

As November approaches we remember our parishioners and our loved ones. It is the month of Remembrance.

Last Sunday's collection: Envelopes £163.00 Bakewell: £44.56 Hassop: £68.86 Total £276.42

Please remembers the account name of the parish is simply Hassop & Bakewell RCP

Gift Aid Envelopes are available in both churches for use by parishioners and visitors. Please use!
