What can I give Him, poor as I am?
 If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb;
 If I were a Wise Man, I would do my part;
 Yet what I can I give Him: give my heart

Once again I would like to say a very sincere "thank you" to so many of you who were helped me over the Christmas period. It was a taxing weekend but I think we managed to navigate it without any major crises and I am grateful for that. I would also like to thank you for your kind thoughts to me at Christmas when you had so many other family members to consider and cater for. Thank you for your cards, your gifts, the Christmas offerings, the friendship and much more besides. I am very conscious of how much I owe you, the parish community members, who give of your time and talents to keep alive our various vocations in the Church. Thank you again and again and I wish you all and your families A Very Happy New Year, Fr Hugh

You will see that we have several meetings planned for January: please feel free to offer suggestions if you have any thoughts about our liturgy efforts, finance committee, PPC responsibilities.

Those of you at our Christmas 'Midnight Mass' will have noticed that we did things a little differently this year. Various reasons pushed us in this direction not least of which was that many choir members had their winter maladies hitting them. There were several invitations to join the choir and one invitation to come along for Advent rehearsals – alas, "no takers".

Eileen Simpson's Requiem

Mass was celebrated on Friday morning in Hassop and afterwards Eileen was buried along with her late husband, Ron, in our parish cemetery. The weather prevented many family members and friends from attending, but Eileen's sons are very grateful to those who could make it. There are some In Memoriam cards in Hassop church for those who would like to have one.

Recent Gift Aid news: Just before Christmas, we were told that the parish will benefit from another Gift Aid claim submitted by Lise for the 2nd quarter of 2017-2018 viz. £1,777.50. Many thanks to all who use our 'system'.

Sick and Housebound: Margaret Taberner, Patricia Turner, Shirley Plant, Mary McNulty, Rosaline Varnes and Mary Howlings. We also remember the many parishioners and friends not mentioned here especially those who have recently had surgery.
