Diary of the Month

22nd Scaffolding goes up at Hassop church followed by roof work. Bill McDermott kindly looks after this for us.

23rd SVP meeting after morning Mass in Bakewell (a Tuesday). We're still looking for new members!

23rd (Still!) Deanery meeting

28th (Next Sunday) Mass for our young people c/o Sarah and the Team! Please do the usual preparations. It is also Racial Justice Sunday. Some cards for this are available and there is a poster on the notice board. We will send the modest crib offerings plus the refreshment money next Sunday to this charity. If you want to make a donation, please put it in an envelope and give it Fr Hugh to send it.

30th Marriage preparation

As we move to February and Lent, Ash Wednesday is on 14th, Rite of Election in the Cathedral on 18th (Yvette) and Lent Family Fast Day is on 23rd.

The PPC met on Wednesday evening: our thanks to all who came along – 8 out of 9 attended. Very good! We revisited the building projects under consideration, the 2018 celebrations, the proposal for a bi-centenary stain glass window, the Diocesan finance document, etc.

Parish Finance Committee met on Thursday evening: its members are Will Fell (Treasurer), Bernadette Goddard (Bookkeeper), Tessa Clarke (Counters), Lise Elliot (Gift Aid), Mike Watkiss (Utility bills – meters, etc.), Kate Howard, Ian Wilson and Fr Hugh. Two could not make the meeting because of illness: those present went through the parish finances, the set-off account, the Diocesan finance document and its request for a parish financial review day. This document reminds us that some parishes are now going into deficit or just about breaking even without any reserve. At present, thanks to our financial structures and fund raising events, we are not in deficit. Again, thanks to Finance members and all who serve the parish community.

100 Club winners on Sunday were: L. Elliot, M. Howlings, F. Harney, C. Rider & J. Clarke. Thanks to all our members and we presently have 95 – only 5 more needed! The parish receives almost £3,000.00 annually from the Club.

First Reconciliation and Communion: preparations for these celebrations are in hand. Parents are reminded to keep in touch with the Parish Catechists and to follow our arrangements. Lent will be an important time for our Reconciliation celebrations for young people, our families and our parish celebration. You will have plenty of opportunity to celebrate this Sacrament of Mercy.

Nottingham Cathedral Events: Two events have been arranged – "Come and sing Gospel" a Diocesan Youth Singing Day for 8-18yr olds 10.30am-5pm on 10th February and Bach's B Minor Mass on 10th March at 7.30pm in the Cathedral. Matt Wilson is interested in the sing-gospel for young people IF things can be arranged.

Looking towards the Eucharistic Congress that will take place next September (7-9th) in Liverpool. The Congress takes place over the weekend and we are still hoping to have representatives there. Expenses for this would be a parish expense. The organisers need to know how many will be coming from every parish in England! Part of this is security reasons but there are also catering and event planning that have to be prepared.

Saturday 10th March we have a special gathering at Cliff College in Baslow to look at the future of the Association of Bakewell Christians (usually referred to as ABC). It is planned to have the meeting from 10am to 3pm and lunch will be provided along with other refreshments. Each church community will help with the finances of this meeting since the local clergy are keen to keep ABC alive and well with, perhaps, a different and updated focus. The meeting is open to all who would like to attend or who might even want to see Cliff College close up!

Banns of Marriage: William Elliot and Rachel Capper intend to marry later this year in Hassop. Please contact the Parish Priest if you have any concerns about this.

Sick and Housebound: Margaret Taberner, Patricia Turner, Shirley Plant, Mary McNulty, Rosaline Varnes and Mary Howlings. We also remember the many parishioners and friends not mentioned here especially those who have recently had hospital appointments or are housebound.

Anniversaries: – This week we remember Dick Tommason and Anthony Kennedy. May their souls rest in peace.

Last Sunday's collection: Envelopes £163.00 Loose Plate Bakewell: £33.00 Hassop: £56.00 Total £252.00
