'Pentecost is considered the day on which the Church begins to emerge from uncertainty to certainty. The apostles and the other disciples are touched by the mysterious movement of the Holy Spirit who empowers them to be disciples and witnesses to the life, death, resurrection and ascension of Christ Jesus, our Lord. There are different religious traditions but these disciples embrace the message entrusted by Christ to his disciples and they make it their own. We gather today and we are witnesses today because have done this before us. "Come down, O Love Divine, Seek thou this soul of mine".'

Next Sunday is the last Sunday of May. The monthly Mass for our young people is foreseen. However, Sarah & Robin Carter with Samuel and Joseph have been attending Sarah's brother's Funeral. Peter passed away 2 weeks ago after an aggressive cancer cut short his life. Our Plan B is called for. Will the other members of the team please prepare for this Mass next Sunday? Many thanks.

This week we have the Funeral Masses of John Smith and Bryan O'Connor. Please note the times above.

Diary of the Month

21st Social Committee meeting

23rd (next Wednesday) PPC meeting c/o Matt Wilson and members at 7pm in presbytery. Matt has circulated the Agenda for the meeting. If you would like to offer an Agenda item, please see Matt or the PPC Secretary (Kate).

24th Deanery meeting to plan future of parish ministries

27th Baptism of Farrah after Mass

28th Wedding

First Communions on 24th June. Parents of young parishioners have been encouraged to help their children with some home work as a preparation for this important occasion. That expectation is still with the catechetical team and, unfortunately, this help hasn't been as good as was hoped for. If parents think their children are not yet ready for this Sacrament, please have a word with the Catechists and Fr Hugh. It is better to give more time than to rush it.

Confirmation preparation: our first meeting is in Bakewell on June 9th at 10a.m. finishing by 11a.m. Again, this will be a meeting for parents and Confirmation candidates – over to those who have this responsibility. Adults preparing for Confirmation can attend this meeting as well so that we can draw up a pastoral plan.

Ili Village along with her brothers & family wishes to thank the parish community for its support at the funeral of Alex her father on Friday morning.

Parish Social Events: We have had a quiet time since the Christmas Fair and with the coming of summer we are now called upon to do a little something extra in the parish community. We are fortunate to have a dedicated group who always respond to our needs – thank you so much! The present invitation is to people who are reluctant!!

Summer Barbecue is two weeks' time on June 2nd after evening Mass. Tickets are waiting for you and the proceeds are given to help the Holy Ghost Fathers Sick & Aged Fund – as the Diocese. Don't be shy – come and join us. The organisers would love the evening to be a huge success.

PLEASE-PLEASE Don't leave us guessing about your support on the evening. Let the Social Committee members know you are coming. Get the tickets now. Secondly, contact Sharon or Monica about preparing salads, cakes, etc. for the barbecue evening. There's a licensed bar! As always, we depend on people responding to the invitations made through the newsletter and advertising locally for the success of parish social events. There are many other events taking place; please don't forget ours.

New weekly offertory envelopes have arrived and Lise will be preparing these for distribution at the beginning of June. About 40 parishioners and parish friends are using the gift aid scheme we have in the parish. Could more use it? Probably. See Lise Elliot or Fr Hugh for information. We are encouraged to review our financial commitment to the parish from time to time to see if we are truly playing a mature part in it. Do your bit – don't leave it to others!!

Sick and Housebound: Margaret Taberner, Patricia Turner, Shirley Plant, Mary McNulty, Rosaline Varnes, Joan Hudson and Mary Howlings. We also remember the many parishioners and friends not mentioned here.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for John Newsom and any others known to us.

May their souls rest in peace.
