Last Monday we celebrated the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord: 'This feast is not about Christ Jesus acquiring what he does not have, but by manifesting to his disciples who and what he in fact is; he opened their eyes and gave these blind men sight' (St John Damascene). The change is on the side of the disciples.' [August Magnificat cf p 91]

This Sunday: There will be no children's liturgy meeting in the August school holidays. It will resume in September.

Fair Trade Table is available this Sunday and the 100 Club takes place after Sunday Mass in the parish rooms. Visitors are invited to join us for refreshments. A few members have not renewed their 100 Club membership so we're still looking for new members.

Next Wednesday, 15th August: Feast of the Assumption is a Holy Day of Obligation and the Mass times are as above in our 2 churches..

No choir practice on Tuesday but, instead, the choir will be "living it up" in Buxton as they go out for the evening! Once again, our thanks to the choir members for their great constancy in their weekly gatherings. Of course, new members are always invited to join and help our parish life.

Margaret Taberner sends greetings from the Old Vicarage nursing home where she now resides. Margaret still remembers a lot about parish life, the choir and organ. Sadly, we haven't yet got a regular organist to succeed her but we are still hoping and searching.

You are invited to our Bicentenary Celebration and Thank You Evening

Friday, 5th October at 7pm

Short informal concert followed by a relaxed get together with refreshments.

For parishioners past and present and anyone associated with Hassop and Bakewell churches.

Everyone welcome.

Invitations and an Invitee list are being prepared for the above celebration. If you like to invite anybody, no longer in touch with regular parish life, for the occasion, please get in touch with Christine Franklin or Juliet Peel and give contact details to them.

Our grateful thanks to Canon Bernard Needham for filling the gap last week when Fr Hugh's flight was cancelled. That was quite a saga, that flight was!

Matt Wilson is the Chairman of the Parish Pastoral Council; Bill McDermott is the Vice-Chairman and Kate Benson is the Secretary. Other PPC members are Fr Hugh, Anthony Howlings, Elisabeth Muller, Roland Blankenstein, Brian Cain, Martyn Bedford and Vicky Dooley. A quorum is composed of 5 members and there is a Constitution based on the Diocesan guidelines that help the PPC to function in its task of servicing the local parish in the local Diocese for the overall good of the Church. It all has to be kept together by everybody doing his/her bit for 'mission' –i.e. responding, participating, being financially engaged, etc. As with most administrative structures, eventually those with the final responsibility have to make decisions and plan for the future.

Fr Paul Chipchase will chair our meeting on 12th September: he has agreed to accept written interventions you may wish to offer provided they reach him one week before the date. You can address your written interventions to Fr Paul through the presbytery mail box and they will be sent in bulk to him.

Monica Hickie celebrated her 94th Birthday last Sunday. Thanks to Lise's help, Monica was with us for the 11.30am Friday Mass. With a smile, she indicated that she is not adverse to an occasional invitation to Fischers as part of the celebrations!

Boarbank Hall Cumbria has a very interesting programme offered by the community there and it is open to all who would like to join in. There's a lot happening there so, please, look at www.boarbankhall.org.uk

Sick and Housebound: We remember young people amongst our sick parishioners and friends along with along with Margaret Taberner, Patricia Turner, Shirley Plant, Mary McNulty, Rosaline Varnes and Mary Howlings.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Thomas Clegg, Joan Dengel, Guy Roper and Florence Gannon. We also remember in the Mass for parishioners Ben Andrews who died recently and offer our sympathy to Eileen and her family. May their souls rest in peace.

Last Sunday's collection: Envelopes £125.00 Loose Plate Bakewell: £49.75 Hassop: £89.00 Total £263.75
