Last Sunday morning there was a Mass of Canonisation in St Peter's Square, Rome. Amongst those canonised were Archbishop Oscar Romero and Pope Paul VI. It was a very uplifting celebration with an estimated 80,000 people present.

This weekend the CAFOD envelopes will be distributed. We are a few weeks late with this collection due to the "Thank you" evening we had earlier this month. Please return envelopes next Sunday so we can send off our parish donation. For this weekend there are Mission Sunday envelopes available: if anybody would like to use one, please fill it in and give to Fr Hugh.

Diary of the Month

21st This Sunday after 10.00am Mass, AGM: each group should have a short report to offer the parish community. The "open meeting" will be recalled plus the HCC letters.

28th Clocks go back during the night!

Bishop Patrick has written a short note to each of the Confirmation candidates to thank them for their letters requesting the Sacrament and saying how much he is looking forward to meeting them. He has also given permission for Fr Hugh to celebrate Thomas' Confirmation in Bakewell church on 17th November during Mass.

November Diary opens!

All Saints Day remains a holy day of obligation for us in England & Wales so we'll have two Masses for the feast viz. 31st October Vigil Mass in Bakewell at 6.15pm and 1st November morning Mass in Hassop at 10.00am

All Souls Day 2nd November (a Friday) morning Mass at 11.30am in Hassop. There could be an evening Mass if people desired this, please let Fr Hugh know. Do bear in mind that our daily Masses are poorly attended.

First weekend in November (3 -4th) Bishop Patrick visits the parish, stays overnight and will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation for Joseph, Maisie, Stephanie and Yvette. He will celebrate Sunday morning Mass in Bakewell. Yvette will be commissioned as an Extraordinary Minister of the Holy Eucharist during the Bishop's visit.

9th November is Remembrance Sunday

13th An important Bakewell Churches Together meeting takes place at 2pm in Friends Meeting House. We need to have parish reps at this meeting – who can attend the meeting on our behalf? Please let Fr Hugh or Juliet know.

The Columban Missionaries and Fr Denis Carter express thanks to all who gave generously to the annual mission appeal last Sat-Sunday. The appeal realised £531.18

Parish Christmas Fair takes place on 17th November – earlier than usual for local reasons. Raffle tickets are ready for collecting and selling. The raffle is a major help to the Fair's success so, please, begin to take these with you.

100 Club winners last Sunday were J & G Walsh, Shirley Plant, T Clarke, Y Staton and M Hickie. Thank you for supporting the club and congratulations on winning.

Canon Peter Bird has informed Roland and the parish community that Tradecraft will cease trading at the end of this year. Peter says that he still has plenty of stock in hand and hopes to sell it before the year ends. As far as foresight allows, we'll be having 2 more sales in Nov. and December. There will be a Sale and Coffee Morning in the Village Hall, Great Longstone from 10am-noon on Tuesday, 6th November.

At last Thursday's Deanery, Claire McKenzie, the Diocesan Safeguarding organiser, spoke to us about her role to which she has recently been appointed. She comes from a teaching background and she plans to have contact with parish Safeguarding Representatives. Anthony Howlings is our representative and the parish is extremely grateful to Anthony for staying with this task even though he'd like to give it up. We can help Anthony by replying to his emails or telephone calls as soon as possible.

A letter of gratitude has been sent from M Hickie to thank us for the 5th October "party" we had. Also, another letter from somebody who couldn't make the evening and enclosing a cheque for £200.00 for the 2nd centenary.

Gift Aid Income: the parish has just been told that £1,856.47 has been paid into the account on behalf of our Gift Aid users. Thank you all and thanks to Lise for this.
