This weekend we welcome Bishop Patrick McKinney who is spending the weekend with us in the parish as we celebrate our bi-centenary. Bishop Patrick celebrates the Sacrament of Confirmation on Saturday evening and the Sunday's Mass in Bakewell. All are invited to sign the Visitors' Book.

One of the chalices, used in Hassop on Sat. evening, was given by Elisabeth Muller's uncle, Fr Franz-Joseph Ravens in 1932 when he was ordained. This beautiful chalice has a very long history – going with Fr Franz-Joseph all through the war years, including when he was a prisoner of war ministering to other POWs. Fr Ravens said it was "the Mass, prayer and the Rosary that kept him sane during these harsh years". It is a joy to be able to remember him.

The bi-centenary banner, on display in Hassop, was made by Jennifer Hambleton who has also done the Christmas cards which are on sale in both churches.

Next Sunday, second Sunday, there is children's Liturgy; children are welcome to join the catechists in the parish rooms after the opening hymn until the offertory.

Diary of the month:

4th Peace Vigil at noon organised by the Quakers: participants meet at the bridge near Bakewell Co-op.

6th Bakewell Churches Together c/o Christopher Hopkins – participants meet at 7.30pm in Methodist Church rooms. Our ecumenical participation is not so good.

8th Social Committee meets in presbytery at noon.

11th Remembrance Sunday – the Act of Homage at the end of each Mass.

13th SVP meets after morning service; Bakewell Churches Together meeting, Friends Meeting House 2pm – a follow-up to our March meeting.

14th Hassop parish meeting at 7.30pm in hotel (Fr Hugh)

15th Deanery meeting in Clay Cross

17th Christmas Fair in Hassop parish rooms – like last year. Thomas will be Confirmed during the evening Mass in Bakewell: Fr Hugh has been delegated to do this.

30th Information day concerning the Catholic Multi Academy Trust under the guidance of Joe Hopkins, the Lead Lay Chaplain for the St Ralph Sherwin Trust. More info from Fr Hugh or on the notice boards.

Alex & Silvia Frangi along with the family will be re-locating to Leeds where Alex has secured a position at the university. We're going to miss them all! Alex & Silvia would like to say 'thank you' to the parish community and will offer some refreshments after Mass on 18th November.

The annual 'head count': over the four weeks for this, we had 183 people attending Mass in Bakewell and 288 in Hassop. The total attendees were 471: last year's figure was 548. This year we averaged just about 118 per weekend and last year it was about 137 per weekend.

The Christmas Fair is in 2 weeks. Many thanks to all who have contributed so far through buying tickets and donating items. We still have a long, long way to go. Cash prizes help the raffle to be a success; if you have never contributed to any of our parish fairs, well now is the time. Step forward and help the Christmas Fair to be a success. Peter and Sharon plus Social Committee members will give you advice if you ask them or just give your donations.

Ecumenism in our parish life! In November we have 2 important meetings: one on 6th and one on 13th. Usually Peter & Juliet Peel and Fr Hugh have attended these meetings but they now feel the need of some support from the wider community. Without this support, our membership of and contribution to ecumenism will without doubt weaken and contact with other church communities will be lost. The 2 meetings will not have any representation from our parish unless somebody volunteers

Our much loved parish friend Ted Shimwell passed away last Monday afternoon just a few days after admission to a nursing home. Anne and their family were with Ted as he said his goodbyes to them. Funeral arrangements are still being made and will be made known when they are confirmed. To Anne and her sons plus the extended family, we offer our prayers and sympathy.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Margaret Taberner, Patricia Turner, Shirley Plant, Mary McNulty, Rosaline Varnes, Mary Howlings and all our sick.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Leo Bennett, Mary Sheldon, Cliff Mann and John Tasker.

May their souls rest in peace.
