Diary of the Month

17th Confirmation of Thomas during Bakewell p m Mass

22nd (Thursday) Please note morning Mass is at 9.00am

25th Next Sunday is the Feast of Christ the King – it brings to a close the Liturgical Year. Mass for our young people, please, c/o the Team. After this Mass, Alex & Silvia Frangi will offer refreshments as they prepare to re-locate with the family to Leeds. We shall certainly miss them when they go.

29th Rev. Adrian Perry, the Methodist minister in Bakewell, is preparing a musical performance to take place at Pentecost 2019. Adrian is looking for participants from all our church communities and hopes all will respond. A first meeting takes place on Thursday 29th November in the Methodist Church at 7.00pm. It would be wonderful if we could have a few of our young people present for this.

30th Information day concerning the Catholic Multi Academy Trust under the guidance of Joe Hopkins, the Lead Lay Chaplain for the St Ralph Sherwin Trust. More info from Fr Hugh or on the notice boards.

Many thanks to the parishioners who have represented the parish at recent ecumenical gatherings. It is very important that we keep up these contacts.

From Thursday's Deanery meeting: Having in mind Bishop Patrick's recent pastoral letter, the Deanery members reflected on ways to move towards our future. The clergy already meet regularly; a step forward is to encourage our parishioners to come together to meet and to encounter (the word used by our Bishop) other Deanery members. And so a meeting is planned for Wednesday 13th February 2019 in St Joseph's Matlock. Yes, please note it!

Responsibilities: As a parish community, we depend very heavily on our volunteers fulfilling their commitment to service of the parish community. All the tasks that help us to work well together must be taken with personal responsibility. If you have volunteered for a ministry or parish service, please take it seriously. If you do wish to continue in your function, please let the coordinators know.

Liturgy Committee will meet in the presbytery on 12th December. New members would be most welcome: please get in touch with Juliet Peel for further information.

100 Club Winners last Sunday were N & M Trend, I Village, F Harney, M & C Allsop and P Erskine-Murray. Thank you for supporting the parish 100 Club and the little socialising that takes place at the time of the draw.

Advent begins the weekend of 1 – 2nd December. Be warned! It is a time of preparation and spiritual enrichment. Of course, this Privileged Time (in the Liturgy's vocabulary) asks every single one of us to prepare afresh for the message of salvation and salvation history.

Advance notice: the Advent Reconciliation Service takes place on Saturday 15th December at 11.00am in Hassop. Visiting priests have already signed up to come to help us with this Sacrament. Please make a note of it.

Our parish diaries will not be available this year. Fr Hugh phoned the publishers to enquire and he was told that the usual sponsors were unwilling to sponsor this year's diaries. We will miss having them. The publishers offered to sell their own diary publications but wanted £150.00 up front!

November Intentions: some parishioners have been very faithful to the tradition of making this month also a time to remember family, friends, colleagues and so many more whom we think of regularly. Not very many of you have in fact joined in this prayer of remembrance but you can of course ask for Mass at any time.

First Holy Communions for 2019 will be planned after our Christmas Fair "rush" and the other parish activities we have already arranged for. Keep your eyes wide open and keep looking at our parish means of information viz. the weekly bulletin. If you don't know what's going on, don't blame others.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Margaret Taberner, Patricia Turner, Shirley Plant, Mary McNulty, Rosaline Varnes, Mary Howlings and two parishioners taken to hospital in recent days.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Peter Gould, Julian Chambers, Hugo McGhee, Diane Taafe.

May their souls rest in peace.
