Diary of the month:

11th House Mass at Christine Franklin's (10am) + Historic Churches Committee visits Hassop re future plans c/o Bill.

21st Easter Sunday – Mass in Hassop at 10.00am

27-28th We welcome Fr James Mchamungu CSSp for weekend ministry and 4-5th May we welcome the Xaverian Fathers who will make the annual "live" mission appeal in the parish. Helpers please note this! Our usual helpful team will have to spring into action once more but this time they will have to prepare the Mass box for our Bakewell Vigil Mass on 4th May.

Lent Jars can be returned for counting.

Parish Transport rota existed in the past and it looks like it would be a good idea to have one once more. If you would like to help somebody to get to Mass, please let Fr Hugh know for the time being. However, we'll be looking for a co-ordinator to keep it all together.

Next Friday (12th) is a special day of prayer for the victims and the survivors of sexual abuse in the Church: if you read the Catholic press or follow EWTN, you will find that there is quite a lot happening in this whole area of prayer and healing. It is difficult but it is happening.

Final days of Lent and Holy Week are fast approaching.

Holy Week obviously comes before Easter and we still have much to do for our spiritual preparation. Readers for the Scripture texts please prepare; the choir is already preparing very seriously. Two Saturday mornings have been set aside for a little time of recollection and a little time "out". Next Saturday is the second of these two occasions: the Sacrament of Penance will be available and, if we haven't been for a long time, maybe a little personal question might be pertinent. "Why have I not been?" It is a Sacrament lived in the Church and reminds us of that need to seek God's pardon seriously in our personal lives. So, those two Saturdays will be quiet days with visiting priests to help us for the Sacrament or a Blessing.

Forthcoming dates for parish diary:

9th May- meeting of Bakewell Churches Together (BCT) at 7pm Bakewell Methodist Church. Please see Juliet about this. However, we desperately need more help in our ecumenical outreach. For many years we have depended on a few parishioners to represent us. The time has come for a change of faces and names so, please, help the parish!

16th May at 7pm Liturgy Committee meets.

22nd May at 7pm Finance Committee meets

?? PPC meeting is when?
