July Dates

9-10th Clergy Conference

12th Wedding Service after 11.30am Mass

13th there is a training/updating day for Catechists and hopefully we will have some of our parish Catechists participating in this training/updating exercise. Many thanks to our volunteers and the parish helps with expenses.

14th Sea Sunday and then after 10.00am Mass, the presentation of the Lent Jars cheque to Mick de Carteret in the parish rooms.

18th Deanery meeting in Clay Cross with Adoration

Sea Sunday is a time when we remember the apostolate of the Apostleship of the Sea which is an international organisation that serves seafarers in our ports and cities. In times past it was a very huge organisation and it still has a presence throughout our islands.

We/I give permission to publish this information in the 2019 Parish Directory YES / NO

Please return this information next week or, if you prefer to fill in a directory form, these are available in the church.

When we last renewed the directory (in 2017) some people did not wish to have their details published and, believe or believe it not, this does cause complications for us when we want to contact you at short notice. It helps enormously to have your details to hand so that we can get in touch without undertaking a huge search. So, please, help by putting your details in the parish directory. We don't sell it to anybody for marketing purposes!

Cardinal John Henry Newman will be canonised in Rome on 13th October: he was received into the Church on 9th October 1845. We celebrate his feast day on this day throughout England.

Many, many thanks to all who helped to make our Summer Fair a very successful and happy day. It was hard as usual and there were some comments about this & that & tuther but it turned out to be a happy time and the weather certainly helped. Thanks to our Social Committee, thanks to all who donated, supported, brought things along and, no matter in what way you contributed, this huge 'thank you' is for you. A special 'thank you' to the volunteers who came along and helped with the setting-up of gazebos and stalls. Twelve emails were sent asking for this help and ten replied ready to help. Two did not reply. The final total is £3,233.00 – a very good effort all round!

Nottingham Catholic News (diocesan paper) is looking for help in order to keep alive. It's looking for advertisers and the occasional parish report. The person to contact is Janet Took -Phone: 01440 730399-email:janett@cathcom.org Please tell them you are contacting them from our parish.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Rosaline Varnes and all our sick parishioners and those whose anniversaries occur at this time. [Three parishioners have given permission to print names in the parish newsletter. If you would like names mentioned, please send an email to the parish office at the time of the anniversary or the sick person's name to be added in the bulletin so that it is not overlooked. Many thanks for this help.]

May the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.
