Bakewell church: Fr Hugh visited the church on Thursday: a window was open and it is looking neglected. Anybody able to tidy it up a little so that passers-by may not take a poor view of our parish community?

Padley Pilgrimage is this Sunday afternoon: we gather at 3.00pm at Grindleford Station to begin the prayers.

Sea Sunday is a time when we remember the apostolate of the Apostleship of the Sea which is an international organisation that serves seafarers in our ports and cities. There is a second diocesan collection this weekend.

Nottingham Catholic News (diocesan paper) is looking for help in order to keep alive. It's looking for advertisers and the occasional parish report. The person to contact is Janet Took -Phone: 01440 730399-email:janett@cathcom.org Please tell them you are contacting them from our parish.

This week's Catholic Herald has an article on Cardinal Newman who be canonised in Rome on 13th October: he was received into the Church on 9th October 1845. We celebrate his feast day on this day throughout England.

CGL Change-Grow-Live is the organisation that helps people who have substance dependency and Mick de Carteret visits the parish as their representative this Sunday morning. During Lent we decided to give the proceeds of our Lent Jars to a local charity and this particular branch of the organisation is based in Belper.

Bishop Patrick writes to every parish in the Nottingham Diocese about his concern for homeless people. In his letter he asks us in the parishes to respond to the call to support the needs of Homeless Sunday which will be observed on Sunday 13th October. There are many calls made on our parish communities, but this is because we serve "a missionary church and community".

Sick and Housebound: We remember Rosaline Varnes and all our sick parishioners and those whose anniversaries occur at this time. [Three parishioners have given permission to print names in the parish newsletter. If you would like names mentioned, please send an email and remind us at anniversary times. Thank you.]

May the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.
