As we bring August days to an end, please note a few parish events still to take place!

20th Ecumenical clergy meeting in Bakewell: in the evening, the choir has a summer party – well done, choir!

21st Final little meeting to arrange for our Pastoral Assistant who takes up office on 2nd September. At 3.00pm the Social Committee meets in the parish rooms to review and plan!

22nd and 29th we have House Masses (Tom & Monica's on 22nd and Elizabeth Hague's on 29th).

27th Boiler engineers come to do their routine servicing and get us ready for the months ahead! We now have maintenance on two boilers viz. church and presbytery with a monthly fee of £42.91p per month.

As we look forward to September, you can make a note of plans coming this month:

2nd New Pastoral Assistant begins to serve the parish community: details are being worked out.

6th CSSp Province gathering

10th All Saints Visiting Group (ASVG) has its first meeting after morning Mass: this will be a new initiative on our part and is the group to succeed our now defunct SVP conference which ceased its ministry in June.

12th Deanery meeting at Belper – planning for the future!

14th Thanksgiving Mass at 11.00am in Hassop for Fr Hugh's 50th anniversary of ordination. It's an extra Mass!! It's a celebration of Thanksgiving and all who would like to come will be very welcome. Please see note re refreshments.

15th Ecumenical Harvest Service c/o Rev. A Perry in the Methodist community.

29th We resume our monthly Family Mass and Joe Hopkins, a lay chaplain working for Nottingham Diocese, will speak at this Mass about his ministry and the chaplaincy.

100 Club winners last week were: L Elliot, M Howlings, S Watkiss, P Hope and J Lovett. Thank you for your support of the 100 Club and we now need new members to bring it up to the famous 100 exclusive membership! Don't forget many of us need to renew our subscriptions in September.

Draft copies of parish directory are available for you to check. If any details are not correct, especially phone numbers, email addresses, please let us know!

From the Social Committee: We are making some plans to celebrate Fr Hugh's anniversary on 14th September. Fr Hugh wants things very simple! The main event will be the Thanksgiving Mass at 11.00am. However, some refreshments will be available after Mass and we are preparing for these. Please contact Peter & Sharon or Tom & Monica to plan these refreshments. The newsletter is our way inviting you so, please, see this note as an invitation.

The Parish Pastoral Council is made up of members from different parish groups who send reports or are PPC members. The Annual General Meeting (AGM) takes place in October usually: this year it is planned for 20th October after Sunday morning Mass. At the next AGM, Fr Hugh will propose that we discontinue with the PPC in its present structure since it is functioning so well at present. The open meetings we held last September & February were good examples of another type of parish consultation and this method might be preferred. This will be part of our AGM agenda so, please, think about it.

Bishop Patrick McKinney has been our Bishop for four years now. The Bishop came to us as a stranger from another diocese and he has assiduously visited the parishes and clergy of Nottingham Diocese. He is very conscious of the need to prepare for a future development in ministries and parish service. He recently met the Parish Catechists and on 12th October he will meet parish administrators from finance, PPC, (liturgy), health & safety with workshops in these "corners" of parish life. Bishop Patrick asks every parish to be represented. Can we rise to the challenge? Step forward brave souls who feel called to prepare for the new mission era our country now faces.

October – Month of Mission: Pope Francis has called on the whole Church to celebrate the "call of mission" in the month of October. Every year we are reminded in October of the universal mission of the Church.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Rosaline Varnes and all our sick family members and parishioners.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for deceased parishioners and family members.

May their souls rest in peace.
