Diary of the Month

This Sunday is Home Mission Sunday.

No house Mass on 19th

26th House Mass at Nicolette Freeman's (Fr Hugh).

27th Social evening in the parish rooms arranged by choir members. We begin at 7pm. There will be music to liven us up including a performance by Paul Davenport who is a classical guitarist and Paul will talk about this music. A quiz is also being mentioned so a lot could be happening on that evening. There are no tickets – it's an open door and open house for all who would like to come along. Refreshments will be available and a modest donation may be mentioned.

29th We resume our monthly Family Mass. All young people of the parish, whatever age, are welcome to help the parish celebrate Mass. Please let Sarah know if you would like to take part in a big or small way!

28th – 29th Retiring collection for the outreach of All Saints Visiting Group (ASVG). This coincides with the feast of St Vincent de Paul on 27th and we usually have a collection to help the group with little gifts and cards and such like for our housebound parishioners and non-parishioners.

Last Sunday's 100 Club winners were A Howlings, M Gillan, J Garamszegi, J Nealon and A Shimwell. With one new member last Sunday, we have at present reached 100 members but this is conditional on so far unpaid up members paying!

House Mass: A weekday house Mass is usually held in Bakewell but can be celebrated further afield. Please contact the parish office if you would like to attend or host a Mass.

APF: Missio's Association for the Propagation of the Faith has sent a thank you for our parish gift of £448. In partnership with Mill Hill Missionaries they collect funds for the overseas mission of the Church through their familiar red boxes.

Cafod Family Fast Day: This takes place on Friday October 4th. Details of their work can be found at the back of church. Please take home a Cafod envelope.

2019 Parish Directories are available this weekend. Tory Paxman has put it together for us and we owe Tory a huge "thank you". Please donate £1.00 per copy to cover printing costs.

Nottingham Meetings: 2nd Oct. at Mackworth Fr Hugh and JH&NF, 12th Oct. Parish administrators' roles in parish life SC, KW and BG, 17th Oct. Safeguarding FrH & AH.

All Saints Visiting Group (ASVG): ASVG had its first meeting on Tuesday morning. All outstanding reports and business needs concerning SVP were brought to a close and a letter from the national office was read out expressing gratitude to all SVP members who faithfully served the Society over many years in our parish. A substantial amount of historical correspondence and other archive material have been entrusted to our parish archives. Many, many thanks to the officers who have served the SVP and kept it going. As the letter from the head office said, "it is always a sad day when a conference closes down."

Sarah Carter: Please contact Sarah for bulletin and general information items via the parish email. We will establish a new email address for Sarah very shortly.

Mr John Hill, new owner of Hassop Hall, has given his approval to our Sunday morning parking "for the time being". It's up to us to show the new owner that we are grateful for this arrangement and that we shall respect the rules. We are allowed to park until 11.30am on Sunday mornings only and we must park in the correct parking place and not on the main drive.

First Reconciliation and Holy Communion for our pastoral year will be mentioned at the liturgy meeting. If there are young parishioners to be prepared for these Sacraments, please let Fr Hugh know so that we can begin preparations.

Parish AGM: This will take place on 20th October after Sunday Mass when the suggestion to replace the PPC with open meetings will be discussed. If you have suggestions to make or any contribution to offer, please give it to Bill McDermott or Fr Hugh. This year's meeting will have the usual brief reports from our ministry coordinators: please prepare these as you usually do.

Bakewell Churches Together (BCT): Grateful thanks to the seven parishioners who attended the BCT meeting last week. Unfortunately, it was not an "open" meeting but we were not driven away! This confirms the feeling that we should have a regular contact for BCT information. It is easy to get a little mixed up when different emails are circulating.

New Date for Christmas Fair: 30th November.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Rosaline Varnes and all our sick.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for our deceased parishioners and family members and, also, for John Smith.

May their souls rest in peace.
