"Let us put ourselves into His hands, and not be startled though He leads us by a strange way, a mirabilis via, as the church speaks. Let us be sure He will lead us right, that He will bring us to that which is, not indeed what we think best, not what is best for another, but what is best for us." Cardinal John Henry Newman.

Mass Count: Our third Mass count is taken today. Welcomers, please can you take this count after communion in the usual way. The statistics will be sent to the diocese. Cafod envelopes are also collected today.

October is the Extraordinary Missionary Month: Pope Francis inaugurated the month last Monday and he reminds us, "We are Baptised and we are sent". Baptism is not "just for me privately"!

There will be a United Service at the Bakewell Anglican Parish Church at 6pm on Sunday 20th October. We are all very welcome: will anybody be able to represent our parish?

Parish AGM: 20th October after Sunday Mass. We will have the usual brief reports from our ministry co-ordinators, and the suggestion to replace the PPC with open meetings will be discussed. If you have any suggestions to make or any contribution to offer, please contact Bill McDermot or Fr Hugh.

Statement of Marriage: Every year the bishop asks that a statement of marriage be read out in all parishes, in which the bishop urges everyone to prepare well for marriage in their local parish community, and warmly welcomes those who are not Catholic by background. Bishop Statement on Marriage, 1 Sept 2018.

Word of thanks to all who supported the Social Evening held in the parish rooms on 27th Sept. Everybody seemed to be very satisfied with the evening and £80.00 was given to the parish by the organisers. Thank you all! Also, thanks to John Hesper, Nicolette Freeman and Fr Hugh who attended the Mackworth meeting with Bishop Patrick and David Wells on Wed. evening. David Wells was the guest speaker and he re-echoed Bishop Patrick's theme of "Being Missionary Disciples".
