November Intentions: November is the month for Holy Souls. During this month we remember our deceased relatives, friends and all those we carry in our hearts. Mass intentions can be requested by using envelopes that can be found at the back of church or you can just put your November names in envelopes.

We have recently given a second donation of £250.00 to the Bakewell Methodist Church for our use of the church on Saturday evenings. You will see below that the cash collection last Saturday was not over generous!

In September parishioners supported the parish through their direct giving arrangements with the sum of £1,750.00. Many thanks for this support which comes to the parish even when you go away on holidays!

Christmas Fair

Grateful thanks to the folks who have already responded and have taken raffle tickets to sell to their extended families. The raffle is a major source towards the Fair's success but not the only one. Peter Marsh is regularly reminding us about the approaching date and the Social Committee meet to plan things as you can see from the diary. We are very fortunate to have such committed parishioners and the other side of the coin is that "we others" do our little bit. Cash prizes, hamper goodies and donations, all needed. Please see Peter & Sharon.

Youth Day: Special focus is given to the youth on this Sunday, The Feast of Christ the King. In Hassop we will mark this day by inviting all our young people to receive their own special blessing at the end of Mass.

Annual meeting of the Bakewell Asylum Seekers and Refugees Network: Saturday, November 9th 10.00 - 12.00 in Wesley Hall, Methodist Church, Bakewell. Theme - Schools of Sanctuary. This meeting will look at what this means and how it can be achieved. There will be speakers from Sheffield and short reports looking at hospitality, advocacy and language support.

ASVG: The ASVG is appealing for good, clean clothing for young women, men and children in support of the Bakewell Area Asylum Seekers and Refugees Programme. Items can be left today in the Parish Rooms for sorting and delivery by the ASVG members.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Rosaline Varnes, all those in nursing homes and all our sick parishioners.

Anniversaries: We remember all our parishioners, relatives and friends whose anniversary occurs this week.

May their souls rest in peace.
