Pope Benedict XVI tells us that 'Advent, this powerful liturgical season that we are beginning, invites us to pause in silence to understand a presence. It is an invitation to understand that the individual events of the day are hints that God is giving us, signs of the attention he has for each one of us.' ---Homily at First Vespers of Advent, November 28, 2009

Diary of the Month

2nd St Ralph Sherwin Trust meeting (afternoon).

2nd Hustings in Bakewell Parish Church 6-7pm with parliamentary candidates present: Geoff Marsh has arranged this – it is open to all and there is a possibility to submit your questions beforehand.

6th Choir party – and they deserve it as they prepare for our Advent & Christmas celebrations.

10th ASVG meeting after Mass.

Next Sunday, second Sunday, we have the children's Liturgy.

Children are welcome to join the catechists in the parish rooms after the opening hymn until the offertory.

Christmas Fair: Our Christmas Fair took place yesterday afternoon. A huge thank you to all those who helped make this a success. It will continue today after Mass. Please come and join us in the Parish Rooms.

Advent Group: Parishioners are invited to join our advent group, meeting in the presbytery to explore the York Course for Advent. Dates for meetings are as follows: Wednesday 4th Dec at 1.45pm "Praying in the face of unanswered prayer"/ Tuesday 10th Dec at 1.45pm "Praying for the marginalised"/Monday 16th Dec at 1.45pm "Prayer and Covenant". More details from Juliet.

Advent Recollection & Reconciliation Morning takes place on 14th December beginning at 11.00 am. A time of prayer, silence, space 'out' from all the bustle and it is for all of us! Bring the young parishioners and children; if not familiar with Reconciliation, come for a Blessing. Give time to Advent and then Christmas makes more sense!

Christmas Eve Family Mass 5.30 pm: We are now starting our preparations for the Christmas Mass for our young people and would like to hear from our younger parishioners who would like to take part. If you would like to participate either reading, serving, helping with the offertory or contributing to the music, please let Sarah or Christine know so we can be fully prepared.

Available are December Magificat and Bakewell Churches Together (BCT): "Take and read", St Augustine once said!

The Bakewell Area Asylum Seekers and Refugee

Programme would like to thank all those who so generously donated to the clothes collection recently. Over fifty bags were delivered to Sheffield City of Sanctuary and were greatly appreciated.

Molly Pugh lived in our parish for many years and was very involved in parish life. She still has friends living in the parish today. Molly celebrates her 100th Birthday on 13th December in Nantwich where she currently lives, being close to her son Robert. We have Mass for Molly on 10th December in Hassop which has been requested by ASVG (successor to SVP). If you would like to contact Molly, her address is Clarendon Court Care Home, Beechwood Close, Nantwich CW5 7FY.

Saturday 4th January in the Methodist Church Bakewell we're having an Epiphany evening meal. Adrian Perry (minister there) is organising something "outside the box" for our church families and hopes that people will support it. In all the church communities we have friends and worshippers from different traditions and who have married in another tradition. Here's hoping that the possibility of food might bring us out in numbers! The meal takes place after our usual Vigil Mass.

On Monday at 11.30am We have the Thanksgiving Service for Nicola Jane Stubley in the Parish Church Bakewell. Parishioners and friends of Nicki and the family would be very welcome. On Tuesday the funeral of Pat Turner (Julie Hespé's mother) takes place in Sheffield and on Friday 13th December the Funeral Mass of Fr Eddie McCann CSSp takes place in Chester. (No Adoration and no morning Mass on this Friday.)

Sick and Housebound: We remember Rosaline Varnes, all those in nursing homes and all our sick parishioners. Michael Cosgrove sends greetings to his fellow parishioners at the Saturday Mass.

Anniversaries: – We pray for all our deceased relatives and friends, especially those whose anniversaries occur this week, Fr Anthony Kenny CSSp, Deacon John Hague, Leslie Wright and John Ward. May their souls rest in peace.
