"Events" often take over all our efforts to plan a day's activities – like last Tuesday I had "cards" down for my "to do" list: I didn't get one done! "Events" unforeseen took over all my morning and in the afternoon more "events". It has been a bit like that for most of the week. However, it has been a good week and many of those happenings were more important than my cards. Sometimes we have to have a bit of chaos in our lives so that we can appreciate those calmer and enjoyable moments. Over the next few days there will be much chaos in the lives of many people no matter how well they try to plan things and there definitely can be those 'heated' moments because there are such experiences as a "clash of similars" or a "clash of opposites" and probably lots of other clashes too. And, yet, many of our Christmas cards wish us "Peace and Joy". Let's do our little bit to preserve the spirit and the prayer of Christmas in spite of all the marketing and the tinsel and the bright lights. Keep it simple!

I obviously wish you, your families and visitors a Very Happy Christmas and New Year. Some have had great joys during 2019 and some have suffered deep sorrows and losses as well. I have very happy memories of my 50th ordination anniversary last September and I repeat my thanks to all who celebrated the occasion with me – thank you again! I am delighted to be able to be with you again for this Christmas and New Year and I remember all of our parishioners when we celebrate the Mass for the People of the Parish. My thanks, also, for all who help me to do the jobs that have to be done even in "little Hassop". Thank you and a Very Happy Christmas to you all, Fr Hugh

Diary of the Month

Please remember Saturday evening Masses are at the Methodist Church unless otherwise stated. All other services in Hassop.

24th Christmas Eve Mass for our young families at 5.30 pm.

24th 'Midnight Mass' 9.30 pm, preceded by carols at 9 pm.

25th Mass for Christmas Day 10 am – anybody to lead the singing on Christmas Morning? The choir will have done their part!

1st Jan: New Year's Day Mass 11 am.

29th Sunday Mass as usual but not a Family Mass.

Rotas for Christmas Masses: Christmas Eve 9.30pm readers are J. Hespe and R. Blankenstein/Eucharistic ministers are J. Hespe and E. Muller. 10am Christmas Day readers are M. Hopkinson and J. Peel /Eucharistic ministers are L. Elliot and A. Shimwell.

Family Mass: There will be a short practise for those involved in the Christmas Eve Family Mass, after 10 o'clock Mass today. No practice – no participation in the Family Mass.

Saturday 4th January (Epiphany weekend) after the Vigil Mass in the Methodist Church, Bakewell Churches Together (BCT) are planning a little Epiphany "food" celebration in the Methodist Church. Adrian (the Minister) is asking us to prepare "savouries" which should not be too difficult after Christmas and New Year. Please send an email to Sarah in the office if you can help out with this.

Our English Martyrs Church Bakewell: A representative from the diocese came to our Bakewell Church last Tuesday to take an inventory of the contents to enable things to progress with the sale of the church. Our thanks to John Hespe for supervising this visit. Any parishioners interested in purchasing benches, tables chairs or other items should contact Fr Hugh or the parish office.

Clergy Christmas Offering envelopes are available this weekend. We also have Offering envelopes in the weekly boxes if you use these.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Rosaline Varnes and John Dooley along with all those in nursing homes and all our sick parishioners.

Anniversaries: We pray especially for Tony Furness, Albert Fidler, Margaret Everett, Edward Searle Wyke-Smith and Christopher Holmes whose anniversaries occur this week. We remember all our deceased relatives, friends, parishioners and Sr Raphael Lynch who died recently in Derby.

May their souls rest in peace.

We pray also for those who mourn, at a time when loved ones are especially missed at Christmas.

Last Sunday's collection: Envelopes: £202 Loose Plate Bakewell: £35 Hassop: £36.56 Total: £273.56
Gift Aid Envelopes are available in both churches for use by parishioners and visitors. Please use!
