1st/2nd Feb: PG & TC

Today is Peace Sunday. Pope Francis offers a reflection on how we can find peace in our world: "How I wish that all men and women of good will would look at the Cross if only for a moment! There, we can see God's reply: Violence is not answered with violence, death is not answered with the language of death. In the silence of the Cross the uproar of weapons ceases and the language of reconciliation, forgiveness, dialogue and peace is spoken." Pope Francis.

Second Collection: There will be a second collection today for the diocesan Sick and Retired Priests Fund.

Rite of Election: This year the Rite of Election in the Diocese of Nottingham takes place on Sunday 1st March in St Barnabas Cathedral at 3pm, with the theme 'The God Who Speaks'. It is an important stage in the journey of catechumens and candidates and also extends to children of catechetical age being received into the church from another Christian tradition.

Catholic Certificate of Religious Studies is a course offered by Nottingham Diocese, on Jan 25th and Feb 8th in Nottingham at 10 am (further details from the parish office). Some parishioners did this course in previous years and could tell you about it. If you would like to participate, please step forward and the parish will help with any expenses that may occur.

Diocesan Events: In May 2020, the Bible Society is sponsoring a garden based on Psalm 23 at the Chelsea Flower Show. It is hoped that communities, churches and schools across the country will be inspired to create their own Psalm 23-inspired garden. Would anyone be interested in this project here in Hassop? Also in May (16th) there will be a Day of Prayer 'Encounter Jesus and be Missionary Disciples' to be held at St Joseph's in Matlock at 10am.

Family Mass: Next Sunday 26th January we celebrate our Family Mass. Please send Sarah an email if you would like to take part.

Last Sunday's collection: Envelopes: £130 Loose Plate Bakewell: £12.50 Hassop: £59.30 Total: £201.80
Gift Aid Envelopes are available in both churches for use by parishioners and visitors. Please use!

Job Vacancy at The Diocese of Nottingham: A vacancy has arisen for a Support and Administration Service Officer supporting our parishes in a wide variety of administrative areas and projects. It is a full-time position. Closing date for applications is 31st January. For further details please contact the parish office.

In this past week in our beautiful quiet country parish life, we've had to meet architects (re future of Hassop ambulatory, etc.), estate agents (re Bakewell church), attend to the sound system (a new loop unit installed), order heating oil for our "veteran" Sunday morning and weekday parishioners, arrange for the organ to have an overhaul and make arrangements to dispose of some of the items we have in Bakewell church. Yes, a lovely quiet week, it was. Oh, by the way, nobody did the shopping for the presbytery – that had to be done too. And, of course, money for all these items is required – just like any other family group. (HD)

Thursday morning house Masses have resumed: if you would like to have a house Mass, please get in touch with Juliet Peel or Fr Hugh. Anybody can arrange to have one so don't be shy!

Last Sunday the first "red box" was brought to Hassop: it is time to start bringing them once again before Lent begins.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Rosaline Varnes and all those in nursing homes and all our sick parishioners.

Monsignor Joseph Phelan, a priest of the Diocese passed away last weekend. He was very well known in educational circles since he was the Diocesan Education Secretary for many years, but he began his priestly ministry in Chesterfield many, many years ago before the creation of Hallam Diocese. Marie Hopkinson knew him well in those far off days. His funeral takes place in Ashby De La Zouch on Tuesday 4th Feb.

Anniversaries: – We pray for all whose anniversaries occur this week especially for Ornella Allsop, Millie Hobson, Mary Phillips and Dick Tommason, and all our deceased relatives, friends and parishioners. May their souls rest in peace.
